

ROGERS FIGURES KAHN HAD REASON TO TAKE TO FLASK

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Nov. 8.—It wasn't drinking that Senator Brook-hard wanted to show at that dinner. It was the fact that an Iowa senator sat next to Otto Kahn. Which also excuses Mr. Kahn's resorting to the flask. With progressive senators relating all the ingredients of social functions might have been why Hiram Johnson's invitation went astray. But Mr. Johnson's health is better by it, for no matter how tasty a dinner the Hoovers might have served, it would have disagreed with Senator Johnson. Mr. Hoover's alibi as to why the invitation miscarried should have been, "I mailed it to the Republican side of the senate."

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWS OBSERVES

There are about as many ideas as to the route that the Los Angeles, Navy dirigible, took over the city yesterday, as there are people that saw it. Seems that the route appeared differently to people in various parts of the city.

Pa News notes where a tree that appeared to be 400 years of age had been cut in an oak forest near North Liberty. It seems a shame to Pa News that such a grand old oak would have to give way to the woodsman's axe. At the rate that woodland is being cut down in this area, it will not be long until most of the heavy timber will have been laid low.

Effort being made by the Woman's Club to have a decorative light scheme carried out for the downtown section of New Castle this holiday season, is one that will meet with hearty cooperation. Not only will it add to the Yuletide spirit, but it will also give the city a festive appearance for the state Educational Convention visitors.

And if you please, a sprightly Miss sans stockings on the public square last night talking to a friend. This no-stocking fad was all the rage this summer but Pa News thought the coming of frost would scare this away. Apparently it has not.

Local streams are receding fast with the fine weather of the past few days. The Shenango dropped three-tenths of a foot during the past 24 hours, while the Neshaunock is almost back to normal again.

Mrs. C. A. Forsberg, proprietor of the Dew Drop Inn of Portersville, disputes the claim of William G. Maple to the lowest license number secured by motor car owners in the local district, outside those entitled to special numbers. Mrs. Forsberg received her plates on September 30, which bear the numerals 9-984.

Pa News is quite elated this morning. He got a real vitriolic anonymous letter. Somebody's reading the stuff in this column anyhow, now we are certain.

Armistice Day will be quiet in New Castle. New Castle veterans will share in a Tri-County celebration, in Butler.

For some reason the new lights on the North street bridge failed to burn last night as announced.

Better Lighting Near New Hospital

Several Street Lights Are To Be Erected Near Institution

Council today adopted a motion by Councilman Davies concerning lights which will result in better illumination around Jameson Memorial hospital. According to the motion two 600 c. p. lights will be installed in Leasure avenue west of Wilmington and also two 600 c. p. lights in Garfield avenue west of Wilmington. There will be four 250 c. p. lights placed in Garfield avenue, between North Mercer street and Wilmington avenue.

Police Of Nation Hunt For Woman In Strange Case

Gladys Parkes Baker, Ex-Show Girl Hunted As Slayer Of Adopted Daughter

FATHER BELIEVES SON ALSO KILLED

Many Important Clues Uncovered By Jersey Police In Strange Mixup

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Possibility that the two little children, Dorothy, four, and Timothy, two, of Allan Rogers, Woodbury, N. J., insurance agent, were slain out of revenge by the missing girl sought on suspicion of murder in a nationwide hunt following the discovery of the skeleton of a little child at National Park, N. J., was seen by police today with the revelation of a letter received by the bereaved father.

The letter was purported to have been written by Gladys Parkes Baker, the ex-show girl and cabaret dancer, with whom he entrusted the two children.

"I am going to take them far, far away where you won't see them again," she threatened. Mrs. Baker, it was said, had demanded that Rogers cease claiming fatherhood of the children, as she wished to be known as their mother. The letter read in part:

"I am writing to let you know that there is no use of your coming around to the neighbors and blowing off your face about your being the father of the children. I thought that when I took the children we had an understanding. You told me you might want to get married again and no woman would want you with six children. I am going to move and take the children far, far away, where you won't see them again. I am not going to leave any address, because I am raising the children, not you."

Outlived Usefulness
Another theory—that the children entrusted to the care of the former Philadelphia model may have met their deaths after having outgrown the age when they might be used as pawns in a blackmail plot—was advanced by Camden police today. Late developments, according to the New Jersey police, would indicate that both youngsters had been called upon to play the role of illegitimates in order that their foster-mother might collect large sums of money from unsuspecting lovers.

Descriptions of the missing ex-show girl have been sent to every large city in the country, but police believe she is either in Philadelphia or St. Louis. (Continued On Page Two)

Open Bids For Enon Highway

Bridge To Eliminate Grade Crossing Also Included In Project

From Harrisburg today came the message that Herrity and Parish company of Youngstown, Ohio, presented the lowest bid for the construction work on the bridge and mile and a half of paving at Enon Valley on Route 265. The bridge is the new grade-crossing eliminator projected for a short while ago. The bid was for $161,377.

The road will extend from Enon Valley to the Beaver county line.

SEVERAL NEW LIGHTS ORDERED

Street Lights To Be Placed In Several Sections Of City

"Let there be more light" said Councilman Davies today during council session at City Hall, and council acted accordingly. As a result new lights will be installed at the following places:

Three 250 c. p. Rose avenue between Cascade street and Stanton avenue.
One 150 c. p. Pollock avenue, between Luton and Phillips streets.
Two 600 c. p. Leasure avenue, west of Wilmington avenue.
Two 600 c. p. Garfield avenue, west of Wilmington avenue.
Four 250 c. p. Garfield avenue, between Mercer street and Wilmington avenue.
One 250 c. p. at Northview and Carlisle streets.
Two 100 c. p. Montgomery street, between Blanchard and Lafayette streets.

Guild Garments Being Distributed

Following the ingathering of the Needlework Guild held in The Castle on Thursday, the articles of clothing contributed by the members of the organization were distributed to various organizations today.

As splendid a response as the organization had last year, this year was even more generous. In 1928, 3500 garments were distributed. This year the number was increased by 350, the total garments being 3850.

The distribution was as follows, according to Mrs. James M. Smith, president of the New Castle branch, Almira Home, 142 garments, Associated Charities, 1775, Children's Aid 100, City Cupboard, 50, Rescue Mission 121, Margaret Henry Home, 514, Mothers Assistance, 70, New Castle hospital, 369, Rhodes Mission, 100, Salvation Army, 200, Jameson Memorial hospital, 369, St. Vincent de Paul, 40.

$20,000 Heart Balm

Here we have Miss Ann Livingston, dark-eyed Tulsa beauty, with the $20,000 check given her, in Chicago, by Franklin Harding, elderly Chicago millionaire, thereby bringing to a close a romance aired in the courts through a breach of promise suit. The original judgment was $25,000, but a reduction was agreed upon to avoid further court action.

Mill Officer Dies Suddenly

Arthur O. Lehw, Dies In Auto On Public Square This Morning

HEART TROUBLE BELIEVED CAUSE

Arthur O. Lehw, aged 49, an employee of the safety department of the Carnegie Steel company for the past 20 years, succumbed to a heart attack about 9 o'clock this morning as he was on his way home from work. He had worked the midnight to 8 a. m. turn and left for his residence in the machine of Paul Starek of Conkle avenue. As the car approached Jefferson and Washington street the stop light appeared and as he stopped the machine Mr. Lehw heard Mr. Lehw make a noise and as he turned to look at him his head dropped to one side and his hat fell off. Mr. Starek stopped to him but he did not answer, so he rushed him to the office of a doctor where he was given aid and then removed to the Jameson Memorial hospital but he died before the hospital was reached, having had an acute heart attack.

He was born February 22, 1880. Mr. Lehw was unmarried and made his home at the residence of Mrs. Nancy St. Clair, 501 North Locust street. He was born in Belle Vernon, Pa., the son of Lewis and Mary Behannon Lehw and is survived by three brothers, David and Bert of Lancaster, O., and Clarence of New Castle, his stepfather, James Anderson; also two half sisters, Mrs. Paul Gigg and Mrs. Roy Stewart; two half brothers, John and James Anderson and a nephew Earl Lehw all of this city.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from the home of Mrs. Nancy St. Clair, 501 North Locust street.

Hunt Chemist At Cleveland

Mystery In Disappearance Of Water Department Official

CHARRED WRECKAGE OF AUTO IS FOUND

(International News Service)

POTTSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 8.—Mystery today shrouded the disappearance of Dr. Ernest Watzl, Cleveland Water Department official, following the discovery of the charred, twisted wreckage of his automobile on the Schuylkill river banks near here late yesterday. The car had been charred by flames apparently originating from a leaking gasoline connection.

Dr. Watzl was reported to have left Philadelphia yesterday on a return motor trip to Cleveland. Discovery of the remains of his car were the first tangible clues to his whereabouts since his departure from the Quaker City. A minute examination of the wreckage failed to reveal whether he was consumed by the flames or that he left the car. Working on the theory that he might have rushed to the river to extinguish his burning clothing and tumbled into the stream police examined the ground for hundreds of yards around but failed to uncover any traces of the missing chemist. One theory has been advanced, however, that Dr. Watzl walked to the nearest railroad station and caught a train for Cleveland but Cleveland police were unable to locate him in the Ohio city and a telephone conversation with his wife also failed to locate him.

State police and highway patrolmen began grappling in the river near where the charred car was found shortly after daybreak today. Dr. Watzl had been sent to Philadelphia by Ohio officials to make tests of water in this vicinity. It is known that he carried chemicals in his car which might have exploded and ignited the machine.

Dr. Watzl is married and has two daughters. He is said to be about 40 years of age, five feet, eight inches tall, and was neatly dressed at the time he left Philadelphia. He wore a blue chinchilla overcoat with a derby and spats. He also wore a monocle and had blue eyes.

Officials began suspect foul play today as their investigations revealed not a single trace of the missing physician.

Heavy Sentence Given In Mercer By Judge Chambers

Nine Months To County Jail Is Sentence Of Drunken Driver

(Special To The News)
MERCER, Pa., Nov. 8.—Judge James A. Chambers of the Lawrence county court established a record in Mercer county courts when on Thursday, Nov. 7, he fined Mike Meenihan of Farrell $200 and costs and sentenced him to nine months in the county jail for driving while intoxicated.

There have been sentences of six months for driving while intoxicated, but the 9-month sentence is a new record. Meenihan was convicted by a jury after testimony had been taken, the testimony being that he was badly intoxicated and had hit two cars while driving.

John Boddy, also of Farrell, received a stiff sentence, also, from Judge Chambers for the same offense, his sentence being $50 and costs and six months in the county jail.

FOR WORLD PEACE.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Secretary of State Stimson announced this afternoon he is not going to attend the London naval limitations conference next January as a "professional pacifist" but as a firm believer in disarmament and peace.

He said he believed it was his duty to "go over there" with as much information as possible as to the views of the United States navy and has conferred with every member of the naval general board.

Woman's Club Backs Holiday Lighting Plan

Business Section Will Put On Gala Attire During Christmas Season

MERCHANTS ASSIST WITH PROJECT HERE

New Castle's downtown business section will put on gala attire during the holiday season this year, under plans mapped out by the Woman's Club, and will be a blaze of glory. Festoon lighting will be installed along Washington street and North Mill and North Mercer streets.

Cooperation of the Better Business bureau of the Chamber of Commerce has been promised by Emmanuel Shenkan, president, who with George C. Fox, vice president, and James W. Cole, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, are assisting the women in the project.

Work of soliciting the merchants will be started today by members of the club under the direction of Mrs. William A. Pond, president, assisted by the following committee: Mrs. S. H. Rhoads, chairman of welfare department; Mrs. John G. Nodhardt, chairman of publicity, and Mrs. William Glasser, Mrs. R. G. Maxwell, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Eckens, Mrs. Samuel Klatner, Mrs. W. R. Carmichael, Mrs. F. W. Guy and Mrs. C. R. Balph.

Ask All To Aid.
President Shenkan of the Better Business bureau has called on all merchants in the downtown business section to assist the women in consummation of their plans and requests a most courteous reception of the women in this project.

The members of the committee will ask the railroads to decorate their depots in New Castle during the holiday season, to further assist in the decorative scheme, an added incentive being furnished with the great state educational convention which will convene here the week following Christmas, when several thousand delegates from all sections of the state will be here.

The proposed lighting system will extend from Cochran way at the east end of the Diamond up Washington street to Croton avenue on the north side of the street and to the Pennsylvania station on the south (Continued On Page Two)

Bitter Personal Quarrels Occur Among Senators

Insurgent Republicans From West Play Senator Moses For His Attitude

COURTESY RULES ARE DISREGARDED

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Bitter personal quarrels over the tariff broke out afresh in the Senate today when insurgent Republicans from the West took the floor to play Senator George H. Moses (R) of New Hampshire, for describing members of the ruling Democrat-Progressive coalition as "sons of wild jackasses."

With Moses presiding as president pro tem, Senators Wheeler (D) of Mont., Brookhart (R) of Iowa and Nye (D) of North Dakota, indulged in personalities in total disregard of the usual rules of senatorial courtesy. Moses maintained his usual composure as he was forced to recognize the embattled westerners when they took the floor. He did not deny that he had characterized the coalition as "sons of wild jackasses" at a dinner of New England exporters here last night.

Statements Discussed
When Senator Wheeler suggested that he might want to explain Moses said:

"If the senator can find a more fitting appellation for the gyrated crew who run the Senate I'll be glad to use it."

The recent statement of Senator Reed (R) of Pennsylvania, that Republican insurgents from the North-west who are fighting the rates in the Hawley-Smoot bill "are more dangerous to the country than all the Communists combined" also was discussed during the controversy.

"I want to call attention of those Republican Senators from the West that this man (Senator Moses) who (Continued On Page Two)

New Repeater Station Award Comes To City

Local Contractor Gets Contract For New Bedford Road Project

WILL START WORK MONDAY MORNING

Present Plant Of A. T. And T. Company Will Be Duplicated

L. A. Haug, local contractor, received word today that he had been awarded the contract for the construction of the big addition to the repeater station of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company on the New Bedford road and is making preparations to start work at once.

Actual construction work will be started Monday and will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible, Mr. Haug states. If favorable weather conditions prevail throughout the winter, the building will be ready for occupancy prior to May 31, 1930, the date set for the completion of the contract by the A. T. and T. Co.

Duplicate Present Building
The new structure, which will be a duplicate of the present building, will be fifty by eighty feet, and will be attached to the present structure in the rear. It will be of reinforced concrete with a brick veneer finish, with double hung steel windows.

The contract also provides for some changes in the building now in use, the entire contract representing approximately $40,000.

With the equipment which will be installed after the building is completed, much of which is of a costly nature, the holdings of the company will be increased by approximately a quarter of a million dollars.

To Improve Service
It will house the equipment necessary to relay messages on the new toll cables being installed between Pittsburgh and Cleveland and Pittsburgh and Erie, which will be completed during the coming year.

The New Castle unit of the company will be one of the most important in this section of the country and will increase the prestige of the city in a large measure.

New Castle residents will be gratified to learn that the contract has been awarded to a local builder, as it will mean additional work for New Castle building tradesmen during the coming winter.

Maryland Hotel Burns To Ground

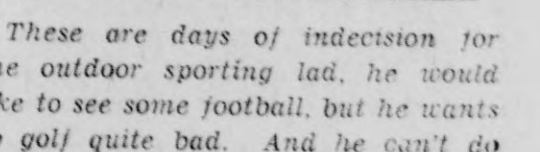

Hotel At Havre De Grace, Maryland, Is Burned To Ground; 75 Guests Flee

(International News Service)
HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Nov. 8.—The Hotel Bayou, a favorite resort much frequented by politicians and sport followers here, burned to the ground this morning.

About 75 guests fled from the hotel after being aroused by a night watchman. The fire started in an elevator shaft and spread rapidly despite the effort of three fire engines to control it.

Arthur Mometer

These are days of indecision for the outdoor sporting lad, he would like to see some football, but he wants to golf quite bad. And he can't do both that's certain though the weather is just right, and they don't play all the schedule of their football games at night. So he ponders grave and deeply over what he ought to do, should he play a round or shinnny, should he watch the time go through? Should he don his plus four knickers, and be out upon the green, should he root for dear old Wampus, it's a question, quite I ween, should he watch the football gridders, or should he go out and play, it's a question he must answer, weather's fifty-two today.

Pennsy Makes Annual Awards

Winning Supervisor Is Sharon Man; Five Track Foremen Honored

The prize-winning supervisor and track foreman of the Lake Grand division of the Pennsylvania railroad, winners of cash awards of $100 and $50, respectively, offered annually by the management of the lines, were announced today.

George Sawyer of Sharon, supervisor of the sub-division extending from Wheatland to Erie, was awarded the highest honor of $100 for maintaining his section of the grand division in the finest condition during the past year.

The best track foreman on each sub-division is also given recognition for his efforts by the officials who inspect the lines and choose the winners. Each is awarded $50 in cash.

On Sub-division No. 1, S. C. Hoffmeister, West Middlesex, took honors; Sub-division No. 2, honors went to D. T. Paris of Youngstown; Sub-division No. 3, honors to Wayne Kent, Eaglesville; Sub-division No. 4, honors to A. B. Kauffman, New Wilmington Junction, while Frank Pitzer of Jamestown, Pa., was the winning track foreman on Sub-division No. 5.

The winning supervisor and foreman are presented with the awards by P. L. Grove, general superintendent of the Lake division. Present for the ceremonies are officers of the maintenance of way staff, division superintendents and other high departmental officials.

Police say she not only went under the name of Mrs. Gladys Baker but was also known as Gladys Parkes and Ruth Rogers. During the few months she lived in Camden she occupied ten different homes. Her father, Benjamin Parkes, a 64-year-old watchman of the New York Shipbuilding company's plant in Camden, still is being detained by police, although he denied any knowledge of his daughter's whereabouts. Camden police are convinced he was in direct communication with her until he was arrested last Monday as a material witness.

It also was revealed today that the investigators are convinced the body of the baby boy lies in the swamps or cranberry bogs of South Jersey in the vicinity of Absecon or National Park.

Investigators admit they have found no motive for the murders, if they were murders.

side of the street, and on both sides of North Mill and North Mercer streets to North street.

Three Thousand Feet. Approximately 3,000 feet of festoon wiring will be installed. Receptacles will be placed two feet apart and will be equipped with 25-watt colored lamps. These lamps will burn between the hours of 4 p. m. and midnight between December 15 and December 31, inclusive.

Each merchant will be asked to pay his pro-rata share of the cost, which in each instance will be very small.

Festoon lighting is used in many surrounding cities during the holiday season, and produces a glorious effect, in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. It will be more appropriate and significant this year, in view of the educational convention here, and a hearty response has been promised by most of the merchants along the streets affected.

These decorations will be an addition to the elaborate lighting system installed each year on the Diamond, and will make the downtown business section of the city a blaze of glory.

BITTER PERSONAL QUARRELS OCCUR AMONG SENATORS

has made these remarks is the man selected to run the campaign to re-elect Senator Norris next year and to make a strong campaign for all those who come up for re-election in the Northwest," said Senator Wheeler, referring to Moses' chairmanship of the Republican senatorial campaign committee.

"In the days before dry dinners the senator from New Hampshire referred to the 'farm bloc' as being composed of 17 lawyers, one editor and one well digger," interjected Senator Brookhart (R) of Iowa. "Since it has become the fashion to have dry dinners the senator calls them sons of wild jackasses."

Northwest Resents. Wheeler declared that Moses and Reed both expressed the thought of manufacturers in New England and Pennsylvania and said the Northwest would resent it.

As senators handled such terms as "silly" and "stupid" in their quarrel, Senator Wheeler suggested that Otto H. Kahn, Wall Street banker, who declined Moses offer to become treasurer of the Republican senatorial committee, did so because of the "wet dinner" exposed by Senator Brookhart.

"The fact that Kahn declined shows you don't need wet dinners to rise to new levels," said Brookhart. Senator Heflin (D) of Alabama, suggested that perhaps Moses complained that the coalition was writing a sectional tariff bill to injure Eastern manufacturers was made on the theory that "the oxen knoweth his owner and the ass his master's crib."

Cat Out of Bag. "The cat is out of the bag," said Wheeler. "At last the people of the Northwest have awakened up to who has been running the Republican party, why they have demanded tariff duties on manufactured articles and want the products of the Northwest on the free list. They know that they have been handed a 'sop' by duties on wheat and other articles which mean nothing."

Reed Condemned. Senator Nye (R) of North Dakota, particularly condemned Senator Reed for his declaration that the insurgents were more dangerous than communists, he read an editorial from the Fargo (N.D.) forum calling Reed's statement "stupid and selfish" and referring to him as "a spoiled boy."

Declaring the Northwest is united against the tariff bill—both insurgents and Regulars—Nye told Moses that he could get plenty of wild jackasses in the Northwest.

Duck Hawks War On Chicago Pigeons

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Large northern falcons or duck hawks, stopping here in their migration to the south, have declared open war on pigeons which make their home in the busy loop district.

Two of the hawks have been shot on the roof of the Field Museum of Natural History. Dissection showed that they had been gorging themselves on pigeons.

Attracted by the easy prey afforded by the city's tame pigeons, many of these birds remain here for a long period each year during their migration southward," Cleveland Grant, curator stated.

TOBACCO COMPANY

PLANT IS CLOSED. KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—After having been in operation nearly half a century, the plant of the American Tobacco company has closed permanently, and 200 men were out of employment today. Cigars were made by hand at the plant.

TOKYO, Nov. 8.—In spite of curtailment and frugality advocated by the Hamaguchi Cabinet, consumption of tobacco is on an increase. Total sales in Tokyo and six adjacent prefectures in one month put it over $3,000,000, being an increase of more than 6 per cent in comparison with the same month last year.

Report Chinese Bandits Capture American Citizen

(International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Aaron Brenner, New York merchant, is being held by bandits in Tientsin, China, dispatches from that city to the evening newspapers here stated today.

The bandits are reported to be demanding ransom of $500,000 for Brenner's safe return.

The camel isn't unique. Many a man goes eight days without a drink after getting full.

Payroll Bandits Get $2,060 Sum

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Six Daning bandits staged a bold holdup at the plant of the Clark Can company 12th and Fitzwater streets, slugging a guard and obtaining a $2,060 payroll.

Employers pursued the bandits, recovering about $1,700 of the payroll. The chase became so hot that the robbers threw away a packet containing the $1,700 a block away from the plant. The pursuers stopped to retrieve the package thinking it contained all the payroll and the bandits made good their escape.

Council Refuses Permit To Tear Up Street Paving

Declares Service Lines Should Have Been Put In Previously

Council met today in City hall and refused permission to the New Castle Water company to excavate in Moody avenue near Carlisle street for the purpose of furnishing water service to a property owner.

Solons based their action on a recommendation of the city engineer who said that Moody avenue near Carlisle was recently paved and that the line should have been laid from the main to the curb before the paving.

It has developed that when notices of the proposed paving were delivered the property owner did not put up a forfeit with the company and the company did not put in the connection to the curb.

The property owner sold the lot to another party and he did not investigate and has discovered there is no connection. He made application to the Water company and city council has refused permission.

This has been a councilmanic problem for some time but council has not always adhered to the ruling. It has during recent time, however, but as the matter now stands the property has no water service.

District Nation For Convenience In Taking Census

Federal Business Association Formed To Take Care Of Offices And Supplies

District No. 7, comprising Beaver and Butler counties will be one of the units in the Third Area for the purpose of taking the 1930 census under the plans mapped out by the Census Bureau, it is learned today.

Under an executive order recently issued by the President, the matter of handling the supplies and business administration in connection with taking the census has been placed in the hands of the Bureau of Budget, a chief co-ordinator having been named in each area into which the nation has been divided, to supervise this work.

The various areas in turn have been sub-divided. Pennsylvania is included in the Third Area and the local district will be District 7 in this area. A Federal Business association will function in the sub-divided districts, headquarters for the district including New Castle will be in charge of Dr. R. H. Brown of the U. S. Veterans Bureau in Pittsburgh.

Supervisor of the Census, Orville Brown in District No. 7, will report to Dr. Brown in Pittsburgh for instructions on all administrative matters.

The work of taking the census will not start here until April 30, but headquarters will be established and the personnel of the office will begin making preparations for the task of enumerating the residents of the district during March.

Dr. C. J. Williamson, pastor of the Highland United Presbyterian church, spoke Thursday morning before the George Washington junior high school students. Dr. Williamson spoke on the observance of Armistice Day in general.

Robert Aiken led the devotional period after which the school chorus sang "God Is My Refuge." A song, entitled "In A Summer Garden" was then rendered by a group of 942 girls.

Dr. Williamson was introduced by B. K. Thacker, the principal. He told of the various wars, compared them with the late world war and pointed out the horrifying increase in the numbers of casualties. The minister told the students they should pay high tribute and respect to the veterans.

It was decided that persons desiring 1930 memberships and to pay 1929 balances good for 1930 can do so before December 1.

The memberships can be secured by applying to Miss Susan Wallace, department of buildings office, city hall.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Highland Avenue School, will hold a Bake Sale, in the Strouss-Hirschberg store, Saturday, November 9th, commencing at nine o'clock.

Donation of cake, pies, home-made candy, baked beans, salads and sandwiches, are being solicited from the patrons of the school. All parents are asked to send their contributions to the Kindergarten Room of the Highland school, as early as possible in the forenoon.

The committee will call for all contributions which cannot be sent to either of the above mentioned places.

A Wall Street Necklace.
Two Billions Of Us.
15,000 Babies. No Fathers.
Election Is Over.

Where more than one or two are gathered together, only the stock market is discussed. A Fifth Avenue Jeweler in New York lets it be known that he has for sale a $300,000 pearl necklace, which can be bought for $100,000. But it must be all cash. Some lady apparently expected prices to go up forever.

Wall Street names a speculator alleged to move from the ticket to his automobile surrounded by five men to guard him. He started a bear pool two weeks ago.
A few friends each invested $100,000, and each has thus far taken out in profit $1,500,000.

The five bodyguards are hired on the assumption that angry losers might pool plan evil for the head of the bear pool.

The rain falls on both the just and the unjust, and a market slump falls upon the good and bad stocks.

Of millions that rushed to buy stocks when they were going up, only a few, the wise minority, will know enough to walk in carefully and buy them when they fall below what they are worth.

Wise was old Rothschild, who said he made his money "selling too soon."

The human family is bigger than is thought. The League of Nations statistical department shows that the earth's population is only 50 millions short of two billions.

Two thousand million human beings is a big crowd, of whom the majority never think, and a minority think occasionally.

The wonder is not how slowly we progress at all, the few dragging the many along with them.

More than one million of us, more than half, live in Asia. The continents, North and South America, have 232,000,000; all of Europe has 514,000,000; only 64,000,000 more than China alone.

In vast Africa, where men fight tropical suns, sleeping sickness and many other diseases, the population is only 146,000,000.

Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific islands have 9,000,000.

Earth's total population could stand at the same time on Staten Island in New York harbor.

Texas, intensely cultivated, could feed them all and provide them with room to live comfortably.

And American factories could supply them all with automobiles if they had money to pay for them.

On German territory, occupied by French and British armies during the 10 years since the war, are 15,000 "post war babies" with German mothers, French and British fathers.

A club of women in Cologne wants Britain and France to support the 15,000 babies.

France answers, quoting Napoleon's law still in force, "La recherche de la paternite est interdite." "It is forbidden to seek to establish paternity." What Britain will answer remains to be seen.

The 15,000 babies, no matter who their fathers, will be worth in a few years all that it costs to raise them and millions more.

In Virginia's governorship election, the Democrats win by a majority of 62,450.

Anybody who thought Virginia was going permanently Republican knows that he was mistaken.

New York City re-elected James J. Walker by almost 500,000 plurality. The biggest city in America evidently likes the young man who dresses neatly and does not take himself or the world too seriously.

In New Jersey, Mayor Frank Hague demonstrated, about as to the Republican candidate for the New Jersey legislature, Russell A. Watson, running in middlesex, a strong Republican district, was beaten by Frank Hague, a Democrat.

Mr. Watson had attempted to annoy Mr. Hague. The latter said: "I did not interfere." Apparently he didn't need to.

The government has spent $125,000,000 at Muscle Shoals on a plant to supply nitrates for explosives in war, fertilizers in peace, power at all times.

Mr. T. M. Rogers of Florence, Ala., wonders why the government doesn't use that power. "The south needs fertilizer, and municipalities around this section need relief from high-priced electric power."

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 4:51. Sun rises tomorrow 6:38.

The same folks who think the young folks are going to the dogs used to create the same impression.

Some one may be able to tell us why young chaps will play baseball and football and other strenuous games and then take a short cut through private property and tramp down stuff just to save a few steps. We see this every day and naturally our curiosity is aroused and when it's our stuff our wrath is aroused.

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS OR ADVERTISE IT FOR SALE

Words of wisdom from Arthur Brisbane, spoken a few years ago. If this was true of the power of advertising in those days, it certainly is much more true today. Competition is keener and the smart shop must not only be up to the minute in keeping abreast of the newest things, but must qualify as type of shop, to tell the world about it. Doing business without advertising is like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you are doing, but nobody else does. A successful man is one who knows what the people want, and then lets them know that he has it.

It's a strong tree that will stand for an airplane roosting in it.

We have noticed that strangers who come to locate in this city are always right on their toes in civic matters. Recently two gentlemen came to New Castle to make their homes here. One is Carl A. Brimmer, director of our new Jameson Memorial hospital and the other is Dr. Byrnes, the pathologist in the same institution. When the community chest solicitors approached them they immediately responded handsomely with a subscription because they have been used to such things. The new hospital is not in the community chest either.

Those who do not preach or practice are in the same class as those who preach and do not practice what they preach.

Don't scorn or press youth! Its ways may violate your pet ways, but are likely to prevail in the end.

CAUSE AND EFFECT
You bet the winter outfit that daughter sports sure is a beauty; And that's why father wears A weary look and last year's suit.

The character assassin is always active at all seasons of the year. We think he was originally started for such cattle. It's too good for 'em at that.

In six months or less we will be wishing it was good and warm again.

Sometimes the Hints and Dints man thinks he is a very bad person and thoughts of turning over a new leaf and leading a better life enters our mind seriously. But just then we get a sample of how mean and ornery a lot of other birds are and we thank heaven we are not anything like as bad as they are, as bad as we thought we were. Omygosh!

and sweeping gales have gone to the bottom of Lake Michigan. For rescue work in big seas and heavy storms the Atlantic life savers have nothing on those lake coast guards. Lake Michigan cannot be the peaceful little tub of water we thought it was.

Talkies aren't true to life. The woman always waits until the man finishes what he has to say.

When a Fitchburg, Mass., man threw the big ha, ha, ha at a movie he swallowed his false teeth which caused him to make a false move and go over the balcony railing. This caused a false alarm to be sent in calling out the department. The doctors recovered the ivory. We know a fellow who fell asleep out in the orchard under an apple tree. After snoring awhile he jumped to his feet greatly excited and declared that he had swallowed his false teeth. The doctor came and displaying the wisdom of the profession carefully searched the place where the patient had been sleeping and found the teeth in the tall grass. That wasn't an office call. It was a long distance call requiring toll at day rates.

In a raid made by Pueblo, Colorado dry officers, the Lord's Prayer printed on a large card was found hanging above several barrels of mash while a card containing the 23rd Psalm was tacked up over the still. That is still another way to camouflage the scenery.

Of course money doesn't go as far as it did in the old days. The mail order houses have branch stores.

Right where the Monongahela joins the Allegheny and forms the Ohio is where some boro to end it all, jumped from the Point Bridge and hit the water with a splash like a plank falling from the sky. That is some stunt for a high diver. The water is deep and cold, so he let out one big yell and a boat put out from the towboat Darling and hauled him in. It beats the bugs when a man loses his nerve and cannot see anything in this world for him to do.

Having lightened woman's labor, will science please devise something to help her kill time?

The P. R. R. has awarded prizes according to custom to its track supervisors whose sections stood the recent inspection of the moguls. It requires a lot of hard work and then come out along the right of way to win the sack of candy containing the gold piece. When enjoying a front view on one of the big locomotives as it glides along through the night at high speed trailing a line of cars filled with people, the inexperienced would estimate the trackman's time as being worth at least one dollar a minute.

Jonah's whole was meditating. "I've got inside information," said he, "and ought to get a prophet out of this."

We heard of a girl who said she would stop smoking if her mother will.

Golf seems to make a man more healthy so he can play more golf.

STRANGE!
A gentleman pretty well perturbed picked up the telephone:
"Hello! Hello! Hello!"
"Hello!" returned the operator.
"Hello!"
"Hello!"
"My gosh!" said the gentleman.
"How this thing echoes!"

Warm Tribute For Mme. Curie Goes With American Fund Gift

Modest Co-Discoverer Of Radium Receives Gift Of Fund For Her Work While Entire Country Expresses Appreciation Of Her Service To Mankind

The refreshing contrast between the modesty of Mme. Curie with the undying fame she has achieved as the co-discoverer of radium, has stirred America. The gift of $50,000 for the gram of radium which is to assist in the advancement of her work is accompanied by a warm tribute to her standing as a scientist and President Hoover's part in the presentation is viewed as symbolic of the welcome extended by the public.

"If the interest of the nation was inadequately focused beforehand on scientific research and its import," says the ATLANTA JOURNAL, "surely that lack was supplied spontaneously when Madame Marie Curie arrived upon our shores almost coincidentally with the celebration of Thomas Edison's anniversary of achievement. There would always be in America a cordial welcome for the remarkable woman who was the co-discoverer of radium, with her husband; for even if radium were very precious a boon to mankind, a very human admiration always must be accorded one whose gifts enabled her to discover in her husband a workable laboratory partner. Perhaps President Sykes, in conferring upon her the honorary degree of Doctor of Science from St. Lawrence University, had in mind the rare quality of her accomplishment when he spoke of her as 'Marie Sklodowska Curie, self-effacing and devoted scientist, teacher and author, internationally known and loved, exemplar of the art of living while directing, to beneficent ends, powerful forces of nature, single and persistent in purpose, triumphant in research, hastening the march of civilization by the discovery of radium, inspired and inspiring idealist, practical dreamer.'"

With emphasis upon her high place among world characters, the MILWAUKEE JOURNAL recalls the circumstances of her departure from Europe in the words: "There celebrities left Cherbourg the other day on the Isle de France. Vast crowds gathered to do honor to two of them. The third slipped timidly and unnoticed abroad the great liner. The two who were so wildly applauded were M. and Mme. No Longer Need You Guide Wet Clothes Through a Clumsy Wringer

THE TRADE MARK KNOWN IN EVERY HOME UNIVERSAL LANDS. FRARY & CLARK, NEW BRITAIN, CONN.

The new UNIVERSAL Washer and Dryer makes wash day as pleasant as any other—with time and labor saved.

It damp-dries your clothes, and when the washing is done, you open a valve and the tub empties itself—all done electrically and with so little effort on your part that you scarcely realize you have done a whole week's washing.

UNIVERSAL Washer and Dryer

New improved safety agitator causes the fastest and most thorough cleansing action

Through UNIVERSAL refinement the fastest cleansing action ever developed in an electric washer is made absolutely safe to daintiest fabrics.

It quickly and thoroughly does your washing with less time and labor than is possible by any other method.

- 1 A new three-minute dryer expels surplus water quicker and more evenly than a wringer and with complete safety both to clothes and operator.
- 2 A small pump puts an end to all lifting of heavy water pails. After the clothes are cleaned, turn a valve and the tub empties itself.
- 3 Through UNIVERSAL refinement of design the fastest and most thorough cleansing action known is at last made safe for the most delicate clothes.
- 4 The UNIVERSAL is positively safe in every respect for the operator and curious children. All moving parts are inclosed. Dryer cannot start until cover is securely fastened. Inclosed grease packed gears never wear out.

Let us place it in your home for a free trial without obligations or delay. Telephone us today.

War Birth Rate Causes Shortage Of Child Labor

Shrinkage In England Expected To Continue For Some Time

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The low birth-rate of the later years of the world war was given as the cause of an impending shortage of juvenile labor, announced in the fifth annual report of the London Advisory Council for Juvenile Employment, issued by the Ministry of Labor. The report said:

"The number of juveniles entering industry annually during the next few years will steadily decrease. By 1932 the total will have fallen from 102,812 in 1928 to 71,102, a decrease of 31,710."

The demand for juvenile workers, on the other hand, is sustained and the establishment of new industries around London and the expected revival of trade in Britain will increase that demand. Whether the ratio of supply and demand will be sufficiently abnormal to increase juvenile wages materially remains, however, to be seen.

Roof Nearly Done On New Church Home

Work of laying the tile roof on the new First U. P. church building at Glenmore boulevard and Albert street is progressing rapidly and will be completed now within a short time. Contractor J. Clyde Gilfillan stated today.

As soon as this work is completed the plastering of the interior and installation of the interior woodwork will be rushed to completion. The Sunday school end of the building is now all under roof and work is being done on the interior of this end of the building.

The laying of the tile is slow work, as much more care must be taken than if another type of roofing material were used.

Gilfillan Block Now Under Roof

With the completion of the roof on the new Gilfillan block on North Jefferson street this week, work is progressing rapidly on the plastering of the interior of the structure.

J. Clyde Gilfillan, owner, stated today that record progress had been made on the building, which is now about 20 days ahead of the schedule which had been outlined for it, and but for some bad weather during the past two weeks, which prevented completion of the roof, it would have been a month ahead of the schedule.

It had been planned to have the building ready for occupancy by February 1.

Photo-Engravers Ask Shorter Hours

(International News Service)
DENVER, Oct. 8.—A forty-hour, five day week will be sought throughout the country for members of the International Photo-Engravers Union of North America, according to Edward J. Volz, president of the organization, who visited here. In a new working agreement, Volz said, the union has provided that the forty-hour week take effect during July and August of next year, and that another month of the shorter working arrangement be added each year. The Union now has 9,000 members.

Mrs. Marie Biddle, Miss Elizabeth Leeper, Mrs. Harold Park, Mrs. Irene Park attended a show at New Castle Wednesday evening.

Albert Hewitt of New Castle was an Edenburg visitor Wednesday evening.

FARMERS 'FORCED' INTO MAKING OF MOONSHINE
(International News Service)
COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 8.—That many farmers living in Boone county were forced into the moonshine manufacturing business in order to pay off their farm rent, was indicated recently when officers discovered a large still on the farm of W. E. Bentley.

"Everyone else is running stills up here because they need money to pay their farm rent," Bentley told the officers when arrested.

Name Four Co-eds On Campus Committee

Other News Notes Of Westminister College Students And Affairs

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—Four Westminister college co-eds were added to the campus committee governing body, as a result of elections this week. These new members are Margaret Reed Butler, from the senior class; Mary Nicholson, from the junior class; and Annabelle Stevenson, from the sophomore class. Gail Paxton, from the freshman class. These members of the committee fill vacancies on the group.

the committee fill vacancies on the group.

ORCHESTRA PLANS CONCERT.
Under direction of Prof. E. C. Murray, the Westminister college orchestra is holding weekly rehearsals in the recital hall of the conservatory preparatory to the presentation of Beethoven's First Symphony as well as some other numbers in a concert before the Christmas holidays.

The orchestra has 20 members and although the group is sufficiently diversified for full harmony, Prof. Murray is anxious to secure tympani, a bass viol and a few more wind instruments to complete the ensemble.

SOPRANO PLEASES
Miss Lydia Neebison, American soprano, gave a recital at the Community House last night as part of the college artist course. Earl Mitchell, Pittsburgh, was at the piano.

Miss Neebison's program consisted of four groups, the first two of which were from foreign operas and the second two from English and American composers. Her program, coming as part of a most excellent course of concerts and recitals both from visiting artists and members of the college conservatory faculty was the subject of considerable applause. Music and things musical are on the up-grade at Westminister this year.

CRAZY QUILT COAT IS NEW CRAZE IN WICHITA
(International News Service)
WICHITA, Kas., Oct. 8.—The latest fad that has "hit" this city—the crazy quilt coat craze—promises to cause much distress among the males. For the boy friends furnish the goods for the quilts by letting their favorite girl cut a patch off their neckties.

The most popular girl has the best and largest quilts so the story goes.

JOAN CRAWFORD
Oh Boy! What A Show

Bo-Broadway

by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Doris Cross, specialty dancer in Public Revue, is a canny little lady from Bawston, who had the first dollar she made on The Lane changed into gold and set in wax. She sauntered the other afternoon into one of those Madison avenue charlotte-russe Nose Bags where they charge you a dollar and a half for a ham sandwich as big around and thin as a Civil War dime. Doris took one squint at the menu prices and heard her conscience calling: "As you were!"

"And what will madame have?" queried the Bronx-French waiter. "The air!" quoth Doris.

And out she stalked, her morale and bankroll still intact.

GOOD SAMARITAN OF THE BOWERY

"Daddy" Wichmann, "Good Samaritan" of the Bowery, lit out a few days ago for The Evergreen Shore. He was a retired upstate tailor who went over to the Bowery to do something for The Tossed Ones. He had enough dough to have sat back and made philanthropy a hobby. But he had a contempt for brotherhood of the long distance variety. He didn't believe in:

Organized charity, strained and well-iced.

In the name of a cautious, statistical Christ.

Over he went in person and took a little room at the Salvation Army hotel at No. 225 Bowery, where he spent his days patching vintage trousers and uniting rents in tattered coats free of charge. The 30,000 men who passed through his diminutive shop became his friends in the four years he sat there endeavoring to salvage their self-respect by teaching them to look presentable.

He's gone now and the world is a better place for his having lived in it. May the same thing, some day, be said of us all.

BEST LOSING CLIENTS

The manager of a Madison avenue brokerage concern that numbers among its clients a score of men and women whose names twinkle on Mazda Lane in the best Edison manner says that in the recent Ticker Tumble the clients who gave him the least trouble were his friends of the theater.

"They love to gamble," he says. "Most of their trading is done by phone. They don't have time to clutter up the office and they're good sports when they lose. Most of them took a sock in the check book and there wasn't a peep."

NOT ALL'S GLITTER

Irene Franklin, now appearing as the funny lady in "Sweet Adeline," a couple of weeks ago inherited half a million dollars from an uncle in Australia, and one of the first things she did was acquire four acres of land, including a 14-room house in the Townley section of Union, N. J., which she intends to use as a country place for chorines temporarily out of work and in need of a rest.

The life of a girl who does routine work on the stage isn't an easy one. Most of them earn a small salary and live up to every cent of it. When they're ill or out of work they're usually flat broke and pretty much up against it, and if the poor kids had a place to go where they could stay a week or two in a cozy, home-like environment without worrying about rent bills or where their next breakfast is coming from they go out and face the world with greater courage.

And that's what Irene is going to do for them.

FIRST ALL-NEWS THEATER

The Embassy theater at 46th street and Broadway has been turned into a house for the exclusive presentation of news reels. It will be operated by the Fox-Hearst Corporation at a 25-cent top and will fill a long-felt want. It's been pointed out as a paradox of the movie industry that in one direction it achieves the greatest unreality and in another direction the most reality of all our great mediums of expression. In the matter of reporting in its proper sphere, it achieves perfection. Without doubt the new venture of All News Reels will pay and thus become permanent.

Special Chapel For Sophomores

Lower Classmen Of Senior High School Present Fine Program On Thursday Morning

Thursday morning in the auditorium of the senior high school the Sophomore B and A classes presented a chapel program. The program was arranged by the student representatives of that class along with the help of Miss Pauline Gilkey.

Following is the program presented: Devotionals—Virgil Thompson. "My Trip to Europe"—Miss Emily Johnson.

Cello Solo—Professor Joseph Replogle. Violin Solo—Sam Dennis, and Amil Lelenko.

"Pagan Love Song"—Sam Dennis, Amil Lelenko, and Elmer Fry. Banjo solo with song—Jean Hicks and Erina DeLillo.

Piano solo—Elizabeth Jones. The senior high band under Joseph Replogle played several pleasing selections. The third chapel for the Sophs will probably be held in two weeks.

Dirigible Passes Senior High School

Los Angeles Arouses Much Attention At Senior High School Thursday

The big U. S. dirigible "Los Angeles" which passed New Castle on Thursday morning was quite a sight to the students of the senior high school as it passed the institution building. Nearly all the students received permission to look out of the window and gaze at the big dirigible which was headed in a northwestern direction.

It passed nearly on top of the school and could be seen very plainly.

GRASS GREEN FREES THE CAPTIVE

Somebody heard and heeded Stagg's call for help, luckily for Peter, who had begun to feel like a mouse in a trap in the claws of Stagg Beetle. Besides the boy was getting a cramp in his arm and he was afraid Stagg would grow as tired of him as he was of Stagg and nip him, any moment.

"Let's have a bite at you, boy," drawled a lazy voice. "With my sharp teeth I'll get you out of that trap in a jiffy."

"Must you bite me?" cried Peter. "Isn't there some other way to get out of the fix?"

The drawling voice chuckled. "Tis not you, silly, I mean to bite, but your coat. And I'll not hurt that much, either."

A beetle, green as grass came crawling toward Stagg Beetle and Peter and in the twinkling of an eye the latest arrival proved as good as his word, nibbling through the threads of the coat that held Peter

"LET'S HAVE A BITE AT YOU, BOY!"

on the knob of Stagg Beetle's horn. Peter backed away from Stagg Beetle's jaws. He didn't intend to be caught again if he could help it.

"How can I ever thank you, Grass-Green?" said he. "I was certainly never more grateful in my life."

"Nonsense! I did nothing at all," laughed his rescuer. "But if you feel that way about it let's swear eternal friendship. Here is my claw upon it." Stretching out a thick claw-like front leg, Grass-Green solemnly shook hands with the boy. Stagg insisted upon doing the same thing.

Lady-Bird was delighted that her guest was becoming such a favorite, and she showed her joy by buzzing about him.

"You didn't hurt yourself, did you?" she whispered in his ear. "I should never forgive myself if you had. But if you are none the worse for it it is the best thing that could happen to you. You have won the liking of all my family, and who knows? Perhaps you may be invited to join the Order of the Sacred Beetle!"

Next: "Buried Alive."

Officers Meet Thursday Night

Major Blauvelt Makes Feature Address Of Evening

SHARON OFFICER IS EVENING'S CHAIRMAN

Monthly meeting of the Shenango Valley Chapter, Reserve Officers Association, held Thursday evening at the Elk's Home, following a dinner, was a decidedly successful occasion and much of interest was considered. Featuring the occasion was the address of Major Xavier F. Blauvelt, United States Infantry, now attached to the 99th Division headquarters in Pittsburgh. Major Blauvelt has only recently been transferred from Panama Canal Zone to the Pittsburgh Corps Area and 99th Division headquarters.

Beginning with the history of the Isthmus of Panama at the time of the Spanish conquest, Major Blauvelt led his very intently interested group of listeners step by step up through the history of that section until the present day.

He told of the attempts of the French to construct a canal across the isthmus, previous to the present. It was the Americans, who finally completed this task and also the Americans who had reconstructed the sanitary conditions of the Canal Zone, which have resulted in making it one of the most healthful countries in the world, the mosquito and disease bearing fly.

An interesting fact probably known to but few and related by Major Blauvelt is that the eastern entrance of the canal is actually further to the west than the western or Pacific coast entrance.

Major Lewis E. Burnside, of Sharon, president of the Shenango Valley Chapter, presided at the business session held previous to the address of Major Blauvelt. Secretary Dr. J. L. Reed read a letter from Pat J. Dempsey, former secretary, now located in Helena, Montana. The question of cutting down the invitation list was brought up and left to the discretion of the secretary and treasurer in the matter of eliminating the names of those who never attend the meetings. It was also decided to leave the annual fees at $3.

Major C. E. Imbrie of Butler, invited the officers to come to Sharon, Pa., on Monday and take part in the Armistice Day celebration there, while Walter L. Curtis invited the organization to come to Beaver Sunday and Monday and take part in the Armistice Day observance there.

President Burnside named a number of men in each town of this district represented in the chapter. The men named and the districts in which they will seek to interest reserve officers in the local chapter are as follows: A. A. Smith, Sharon; Walter L. Curtis, Beaver Falls; Joseph Cowan, Ellwood City; Lieutenant Kramer in Rochester; Major C. E. Imbrie, Butler; Captain Gregory in Grove City; Lieutenant Colonel Daniel McQuiston, New Wilmington; and A. H. Veitch in Allegheny and Ambridge.

It was also announced that the annual election of officers would be held at the December meeting which will be held early in the month and will probably be featured by an address by some officer of the air force. Those in attendance last night were: Lieutenant Paul A. Welch, P. A. Res.; J. R. Cooper, Major Medical Res.; J. L. Reed, First Lieutenant, 343 Medical Regiment; R. C. Lutz, Captain, 343 Medical Regiment; John D. Kennedy, First Lieutenant, Financial Reserve; Walter L. Curtis, First Lieutenant Infantry Res.; Joseph Cowan, Jr., Second Lieutenant, 395th Infantry; Lewis E. Burnside, Major, Engineer Reserve; X. F. Blauvelt, Major, Infantry; William F. Jackson, Capt. Dent. Res.; E. M. Buirago, Second Lieut. Engineers; A. A. Smith, Captain 395th Infantry; P. K. McGill, Captain Engineers Res.; J. M. Peterman, Youngstown, O.; A. H. Veitch, First Lieutenant, C. A. Res.; F. D. Perrine, First Lieutenant, Eng. Res.; C. E. Imbrie, Major, 37th Evacuation Hospital.

Long Gas Line Being Installed

Fifty laborers are at work installing a gas line from Eimersburg, Pa., to Chewton. The men camp in tents along the New Castle-Portersville camp. About 15 men sleep in each tent. Most of the men are from West Virginia.

Add a few slices of raw potato to soup in which too much salt has been put. Cook a little longer and the defect will be remedied.

Indicating the strong hold which the game has on the country, the Senate has made a football of the tariff bill.—The Senate Daily Times.

Voting Machines Will Be Installed In Mercer County

Law Provides That Machines Must Be Installed Within Coming Year

MERCER, Pa., Nov. 8.—The vote of Tuesday in 41 county precincts including the towns of Sharon, Farrell, Sharpsville, Greenville and Grove City indicating the desire of the voters in these districts for the installation of voting machines may mean an increase in taxation in 1930 if rumors from the office of the commissioners today have any credence.

The law provides that the machines must be put in within a year and 60 days after the vote; it also provides that there must be a machine for each 600 voters. A survey of the crowded town districts leaves very little hope for consolidation of any of the voting districts which on the contrary in some of the more crowded districts more than one machine will have to be installed to comply with the law.

The machines cost $1,000 each. The installation will cost Mercer county $45,000 it is figured today.

OHIO HUNTERS FINED.

H. Haltberg and John Rochford of Youngstown, O., were fined $40 for hunting with a Pennsylvania resident license obtained in Franklin by giving a Pennsylvania address. They were arrested by Game Warden Frank Fair.

VOTE IN MERCER COUNTY.

The following is the complete unofficial count of the vote cast in Mercer county Tuesday. Half of the county's 42,000 voters cast their ballots at this time.

Dr. J. W. Brown of Stoneboro, Republican, and L. E. Lytle of Jackson Center, Democrat, were the jury commissioner selection for a four year term in the only contest on the ticket.

The defeated candidate was Clouse Emery, Greenville policeman who polled 2,273 votes.

For Judge of the Superior court, Keller, Republican, had 11,797; Baldridge, Republican had 9,573 and Niles, Democrat had 4,011.

The installation of voting machines passed in the 41 county districts in which it was put to a vote. In the city of Sharon those voting Yes on the innovation totaled 1,002; No, 617; Farrell, Yes, 1,989; No, 705; Sharpsville, Yes, 812; No, 229; Greenville, Yes, 1,786; No, 832; Grove City, Yes, 1,157; No, 524.

MAY PADLOCK CLUB.

Whether Judge J. A. McLaughry expects to follow up his threat with action, the future will tell. The court in sentencing John Kiefer chief of the Farrell Moose club told that official that "The club ought to be padlocked for its disregard of court orders."

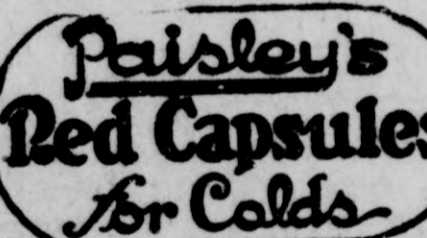

TOWNSHIP VOTE HEAVY.

All but two of the total vote of Jackson township was cast at the election of Tuesday the returns show. The

The spirited contest for road supervisor with J. W. Black, Democrat, defeated by Henry Janes, Republican, brought out the record vote. Janes polled 120; Black 115.

TO DRAIN SWAMP.

Drainage of 2,000 acres of muck land near North Liberty in Liberty township, this county, that will reclaim this acreage for growth of vegetables is announced to take place November 12 between the hours 1 and 4 p. m.

A ton and a half of dynamite will be used in the ditching program arranged for which will drain this huge swamp. Fred Weber of the DuPont company will be in charge. The ditch will be a mile in length.

COUNT MERCER VOTES.

Counting of the vote cast Tuesday started today at noon with the following board members appointed by the court: Miss Edna Patterson, Deputy Sheriff John Barnes, Democrats; Prof. S. R. Craig, Mrs. Myrtle Jarrett, Republicans.

Dog That Saved Girl From Train Given A Medal

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Prince, a more or less ordinary appearing shepherd dog, swaggered into headquarters of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals here Wednesday and, a short while later, swaggered out again, the possessor of a gold medal.

It was one of the few gold medals ever awarded by the society to a dog and was won by Prince for dragging his mistress, Eileen Depson, 2, from the path of an onrushing locomotive near her home in Middleboro.

The little girl wandered from her yard October 18 to the tracks of the New Haven Railroad. She became tired and sat down.

The dog missed the child and hunted her, arriving just as a locomotive rounded a curve. He seized her by the rompers and pulled her to safety.

The dog held a gang of workmen at bay when they attempted to go near the child.

Mother And Five Children Ask For Food And Clothing

(International News Service)

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 8.—The old theory that the "world owes one a living" was taken literally by a mother of five children here Thursday, who was to go into the district court and demand that the city and the board of health furnish her with food and shelter for herself and children.

The mother, Mrs. Nellie Wassner, charged that due to a "systematic campaign of persecution" on the part of the board, she has been unable to work and earn a living.

The petition states that where the children are without food through no fault of the parents, it is the duty of the city and the board of health to provide nourishment and prevent suffering by either slow or acute starvation.

Four Miners Are Seriously Burned

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 8.—Two mining engineers and two mine workers were burned about the face and body Thursday when a gas explosion rocked the workings of No. 9 colliery of the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal company at Sugar Notch, near here.

The injured: Lewis Reese, 22, Kingston, and Jack Good, 18, of Sugar Notch, mining engineers; Benjamin Michliski, 17, a miner, and John Michliski, 19, a laborer, both of Sugar Notch.

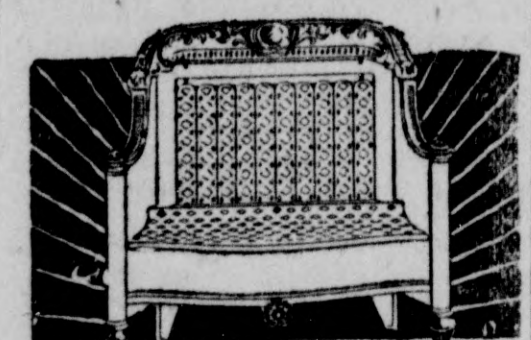

Company officials immediately began a checkup to ascertain if any men had been killed in the wrecked area and later reported the four men were the only persons in the section when the blast let go.

WAS DELIGHTED WAY TEN HERBS ENDED HER ILLS

New Medicine Seemed To Benefit Whole System, Lady Declares.

Thousands of men and women of this city and vicinity have learned the value of Ten Herbs, the new compound, as a tonic for a weak, run-down system, and for disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

MRS. SADE SHRUM

Ten Herbs will not permit waste matter, old poisons, impurities and troubles to gas to remain in the ailing human system. Its ten wonderful natural ingredients also go to the source of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. Learn more about Ten Herbs by calling at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where this famous preparation is being introduced.

"I feel fine, since Ten Herbs put an end to my health troubles," was the recent statement of Mrs. Sade Shrum, 403 Heim Avenue, Butler, Pa. "I surely was delighted at the way your medicine helped me, as it seemed to benefit my whole system. Before taking Ten Herbs, my stomach was so badly disordered that there were cramps and a burning sensation in my stomach—sometimes this burning worked up my throat and seemed to cause my light-headedness. Gas caused me to be troubled with bloating. I had such severe pains in my stomach that I could not sleep well, and I felt very tired and depressed on arising in the morning. I was nervous, and subject to headaches and dizziness. My tired-out, sluggish feeling may have been caused by my liver."

"I read that many local people were being helped by Ten Herbs, so I started using it. I found your medicine fine for the stomach. It was not long until pains, cramps, heartburn, bloating and other distress disappeared. I heartily relish my food now, and it seems to give me plenty of nourishment. My head is clear, and my nerves are steady. That sluggish, depressed feeling is gone. I sleep better, and feel energetic when I arise in the morning. In short, my health is fine since taking Ten Herbs. I can recommend your medicine very highly to the public."

Ten Herbs is being introduced at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington St., this city, and is sold at all drug and medicine stores throughout this entire section.

Washington Excited Over Coming Inquiry Of Big "Booze Party"

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A gentle hint that the Treasury and State Departments are protecting the diplomatic corps against any senatorial inquiry into the diplomatic liquor situation was dropped today by Senator Howell (R) of Nebraska, as the national capital continued to agitate over the prohibition enforcement. Howell announced to International News Service he has been trying for six weeks to get from the two departments a record of diplomatic liquor imports in the last few years. The Nebraska said he could get no response from the two departments to his requests for information. He apparently hoped to use the information in a speech replying to President Hoover's demand for specific evidence of dry law violations in the national capital.

Loomis Will Appear

The federal inquiry into the "Wall street booze party" described to the Senate by Senator Smith W. Brookhart (R) of Iowa, meanwhile continued before a grand jury here. Edward E. Loomis, president of the Lehigh Valley railroad and a member of J. P. Morgan and Company, who was "invited" to appear before the grand jury Monday via telegraph, last night informed District Attorney Rover he would appear before the district grand jury as requested. Loomis got into the case when Brookhart told of seeing him drink liquor from a silver flask at the party.

Fahy Will Testify
Walter F. Fahy, New York broker, who staged the party, probably will get a chance to tell his side of the story to the grand jury next week. Fahy, however, has told friends he had nothing to do with furnishing any liquor at the party and could not recall having seen any. Brookhart, though, said that silver flasks, filled with whisky, were distributed as "favors". Howell's personal inquiry, growing out of a speech he made in the Senate last September, though, seemed to be running into official snags. The Nebraska has charged that Washington diplomats had no immunity against the prohibition law. He further argued that all railroads, steamships and truck companies engaged in importing embassy liquors were guilty of dry law violations. That was why he called on the Treasury and State Departments for a list of diplomatic liquor imports.

To Keep on Trying

"I am still endeavoring to secure from the State and Treasury Departments a statement showing the records of common carriers in handling diplomatic liquors," said Howell. "I've been trying to get this information ever since I spoke to the Senate September 22."

"Have you gotten it?"
"No, I haven't," replied Howell. "But I'm going to keep on trying."

Await Action

Senate developments over the "Wall street booze party" seemed to be awaiting some action by the grand jury. The lobby committee continued its tariff inquiry and indicated no immediate intent to probe Brookhart's story that Otto J. Kahn and Loomis had sought to influence him on railroad legislation at the Fahy dinner. This sort of talk, it was indicated, will not be characterized as lobbying—and therefore can be ignored by the lobbying investigating committee.

death as May 1, 1930, it became known today.
When the attorney's will was placed on file today it was found to read "after my death May 1, 1930, my wife Ella M. Stille shall receive $150 a month income from my estate and the residue shall be divided among my five children."
Stille, afflicted with heart trouble, had made the will January 8, 1925.

Executive Committee Of Sabbath School Association Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Lawrence County Sabbath School association was held in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening at 7:30 with the president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., presiding, and the following members present:

A. Scott Kildoo, president of the Slippery Rock district; Mrs. A. Scott Kildoo, Miss Margaret Walker, temperance superintendent; G. J. O. Davidson, president of Ellwood City district; D. M. Marshall of Wampum, vice president of the county association; George R. Allen, president of the Pulaski district; P. W. Griffin, president of the Mahoning district; Rev. M. Haverfield, superintendent of Christian education; Howard Cox, young people's superintendent; Mrs. Howard Cox and H. L. Johnson, administrative superintendent.

After an opening prayer by A. Scott Kildoo, Rev. Haverfield reported that the religious instruction of the various schools of the county was progressing in good shape and that the Bible was being taught in the East Brook high school, the Harlansburg high school, the North Beaver township high school at Mount Jackson, the Plaingrove high school and that the churches in Ellwood City are providing religious education for the children of the grades in the public school. He stated that in some instances in this county the W. C. T. U. was cooperating by furnishing the money for the text books.

P. W. Griffin reported that the Mahoning district convention was to be held in the Enon Valley Presbyterian church Tuesday, November 19, afternoon and evening sessions.
Mr. Kildoo reported that the Slippery Rock convention for this year had recently been held in the Center U. P. church and that the time and place for the next convention would be set at a meeting this month.

Miss Margaret Walker stated that there were a number of good temperance publications that could be secured by the temperance superintendents of the various Sunday schools.
Rev. Johnson presented a plan for increased Bible instruction in the Sabbath schools which will be presented at some district conventions during the year.

Mr. Cox reported that a meeting of the Young People's association would be held the latter part of this month and that dates would be set for the activities for the coming year.

Mr. Marshall stated that the Wampum district convention at the Cheverton Christian church was very successful and that a district executive committee meeting had been announced by the Wampum district president, Paul E. Coulter.

Mr. Allen stated that a Pulaski district executive committee meeting would be held the latter part of this month and that the time and place for the activities of the year, including the district convention, would be set.

Under new business, the date for the county mid-year efficiency conference was set for January 23 and the place, the parlors of the Y. W. C. A.

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned with a prayer by George R. Allen.

Governor Fisher Asks State Observance For Monday, Armistice Day

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 8.—An Armistice Day proclamation calling upon all Pennsylvanians to reverence the memory of World War dead and to spend two minutes in silent prayer on the 11th anniversary of the cessation of hostilities next Monday has been issued by Governor John S. Fisher.

Proclamation Reads:

The proclamation in part reads:

"The eleventh anniversary of the termination of the World War will be observed on Monday, Nov. 11. It will be the occasion for the citizens of our commonwealth to join in the national celebration of the victory won by the forces arrayed on the side of free democracies and enlightened civilization.

"Our country entered the conflict only upon the greatest provocation, but our soldiers and sailors acquitted themselves bravely in upholding our national honor and sustaining the highest traditions of our army and navy in every noble conflict.

"Let us solemnly remember the sacrifice of those who paid the last debt of loyalty to their flag; let us be grateful for those who were permitted to return to their homes and peaceful callings, and let us make humble acknowledgments to the God of nations who led and shielded them in time of battle.

"I enjoin upon all our people to abstain, in grateful remembrance from their usual occupations and at the hour of 11 o'clock in the morning to suspend all business and employment for two minutes, when every head may be bowed and every heart may reverently remember the sufferings and sacrifices of our heroic dead, who offered their lives as a sacrifice for country and humanity.

"And let all citizens join in offering thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God for the blessings of the peace which is the price of their devotion."

Commission Will Hear Arguments On Railroad Purchase

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today announced that it would hear oral arguments on December 19 on the application of the B. and O. Railroad for authority to acquire control of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh by purchase of capital stock. Examiners of the commission have recommended that the B. and O. be permitted to acquire this road under certain conditions.

Late Attorney Fails To Guess Death Date

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—Hugh M. Stille late attorney of Upper St. Clair township who died October 22, 1929, had "guessed" the date of his

County Federation

Of Women's Clubs

We take so many things for granted these days and pass them by unconcernedly. If we were not moving so rapidly we would do a little more than stumble over some of the big thoughts that are being passed about and quickly shaping themselves into monumental ideas for the near future.

It behooves every club woman in Lawrence county to slow up just a little bit and take note of the plans for American Education Week which will be celebrated November 11, to November 18.

It behooves every club woman in the county to ponder over the significance of this week that is sponsored by the National Education Association and the American Legion and endorsed by the Generation Federation of Women's Clubs.

America's greatest contribution to the ideals of civilization is her system of compulsory education.

There can be no genuine progress, either material or spiritual, without trained minds.

The stability of our government rests upon education. Larger and fuller life for the individual depends upon it.

The great ideal, that has already taken root, is—to train our youth in the ability to think clearly and to do accurately those things which heighten the interest in life, whether it be material or spiritual, vocational or professional, national or world-wide.

Why should only our teachers, our educators, or organizations have educational ideals for our children. Every parent should be alert and keen to understand the transformation that is continually taking place in the educational system of our land.

It behooves every club woman therefore, with all the influence at her command, to heed the voice of the president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs as she asks for unanimous and unqualified cooperation in the observation of this special week.

The program for American Education Week is built around seven principles of education:

Monday, November 11, "Armistice Day, Peace Day"—Peace for the world through the teaching of peace.

Tuesday, November 12, "Home and School Day"—The home lays the foundation upon which the school builds. The school in turn provides education in home-making and household arts.

Wednesday, November 13, "Know Your School Day"—There are problems, why not know them; changes needed, why not understand and help to adapt them.

Thursday, November 14, "School Opportunity Day"—Learn what the school means to the happiness and success of the individual.

Friday, November 15, "Health Day"

Completes 20 Years Service To College

MISS CORINNE MERCER

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—Miss Belle Corinne Mercer, cashier of Westminster College and secretary to the president, has been in the service of the U. P. school since 1908, having completed 20 years of service last month.

Following her graduation from Westminster, Miss Mercer became secretary at the conservatory of music and also a teacher of sight singing and harmony. In 1918 she transferred to the college office where she has contributed much to the business-like success of the new Westminster.

Festival To Open $1,000,000 Airport

(International News Service) DENVER, Oct. 8.—A three-day air festival will mark the formal opening of the new $1,000,000 municipal airport here October 18.

With representatives of the army, navy and marine corps and more than 150 planes present at the dedication, city officials are planning to make the event the most impressive civic ceremony in Denver's history.

The new airport is situated on the eastern outskirts of the city and is a square mile in size. One of the most modern equipped hangars in the country has been constructed on it at a cost of $55,000. The field has been so constructed that a plane can take off or land anywhere within its area.

French Government Buys Yankee Picture

(International News Service) PARIS, Oct. 8.—The French government has once more honored an American artist by purchasing the painting "A Fountain of the Alcazar, Seville," done by Mrs. Isabella B. Hodges of New York City. It will be placed in one of the city museums.

Mrs. Hodges is holding a "one-woman" show at the Galleries Georges Petit. Her twenty-four paintings are the result of three years of work in Europe. After studying in New York and Paris, she went to Spain, the Tyrol, Vienna and Belgium where she collected her subjects. Several portraits of Granada artists are attracting very favorable comment.

116,000 Autos Stolen In Nation Last Year

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Approximately 116,000 automobiles valued at $81,200,000 were stolen in the United States last year, insurance company records show. October and November are the greatest car-stealing months according to the records.

Fine Tribute Is Given By State Association To Percy L. Craig

High tribute to the splendid leadership of Percy L. Craig, as president of the State Sabbath School Association is paid in the November issue of the Pennsylvania Herald, which deals with the proceedings of the 67th annual convention held at Williamsport on October 9, 19, and 11th.

Because of the ill health of Mr. Craig, he was unable to attend the convention, and a note of sadness hovered over the convention. It was with extreme regret that his resignation as president of the association, which position he has held for the past eleven years, was accepted.

The high regard with which he is held in Sabbath School circles throughout the state was reflected, however, in his election as honorary president and his re-election to the board of directors for the next three years.

Although Mr. Craig has been seriously ill at Clifton Springs, N. Y., for the past two months, he is gradually recovering his former health and strength. In a message to local friends received here yesterday, he states that he is able to take several short walks each day, and is feeling much improved.

Mr. Craig's passing from the active ranks of the State Sabbath School Association is keenly felt by those with whom he has been associated, and is reflected in the tribute paid him in the Pennsylvania Herald, by General Secretary Walter E. Myers, who has been closely associated with Mr. Craig during his eleven years at the head of the state association.

Accompanied by a late picture of Mr. Craig, the article states:

"Eleven years as president of so big an agency as the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association means much more of service and sacrifice than the casual observer sees. Personal study of the problems of Christian Educational Programs of promotion. Personal attention to budget building and money raising. Personal attention to expenditure of current expense funds and investment of trust funds. Personal gifts of money in a large way—and enlistment of friends for similar financial support. Personal sacrifice of many hours of time for counsel and in program participation. Personal encouragement of leaders of denominations and educational experts in building goals, standards, and programs of promotion. Personal communication of high vania State Sabbath School Association means much more of service and sacrifice than the casual observer sees.

PERCY L. CRAIG

Personal study of the problems of Christian Educational Programs of promotion.

Personal attention to budget building and money raising.

Personal attention to expenditure of current expense funds and investment of trust funds.

Personal gifts of money in a large way—and enlistment of friends for similar financial support.

Personal sacrifice of many hours of time for counsel and in program participation.

Personal encouragement of leaders of denominations and educational experts in building goals, standards, and programs of promotion.

Personal communication of high enthusiasm to field and office staff and county and district officers.

These are elements which entered into the price he has paid. He has seen the work grow in outreach and effectiveness each year.

He has been conscious of the approval of God and man. This has been his compensation! Thank you, Mr. Craig! You have indeed been a great successor to your predecessors—John Wana-maker and H. J. Heinz.

May our loving Heavenly Father grant your speedy and complete recovery of health!

Fitting Recognition

It is a fitting recognition of the great part Mr. Craig has played in the continued progress of the State Sabbath School Association and the work it fosters. It is a sincere acknowledgement of the fact that Mr. Craig has labored hard and long in a most worthwhile service and that this work has been appreciated by those with whom he has served.

Prior to being elected president of the State Sabbath School Association, Mr. Craig had taken an active part in the affairs of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, and the splendid leadership displayed by him in the local field as county superintendent led to his selection as head of the state organization.

That he has been successful in directing the destinies of this vast organization has been attested to by his re-election to the office year after year, even when he sought to retire so that some other person might take over the duties and honor of the position, he was met with a wave of protest from the association, and so he continued reluctantly in office, the strenuous duties of which, undoubtedly contributed to his present illness.

His many friends in New Castle and throughout the state will be pleased to learn of his continued improvement and will rejoice with him in his ultimate recovery.

Butler Will Be Mecca Of Veterans

Butler will be the mecca on Monday, Armistice Day, for World War veterans of the local district, when the annual tri-county Armistice Day celebration, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held in that city. All local World War veterans who are planning to attend the Butler celebration are asked to assemble at the Legion Home building on North Jefferson street at 8 o'clock Monday morning. The local boys will participate in the parade at 10 o'clock and the other festivities outlined during the day.

British Legs Prettiest; Benstead Picks 24

(International News Service) LONDON, Nov. 8.—Twelve British girls, reputed to be more beautiful and shapely than the famous Mack Sennett bathing beauties, have been selected as having the finest legs in the world. Geoffrey Benstead, the film producer, who made the selection said, "I have had to take their leg measurements and compare ankles with thighs in order to get the perfection I required." "I personally interviewed 200 girls of fine physique and facial beauty, in the end I chose twelve, and they are all British." Benstead attributes the beautiful legs of the British girls to the fact that they are born walkers, find a natural pleasure in walking, and walk with a natural and easy grace.

True to the lode-star of fashion are our arrays of

New Apparel

—Fashion is ever a guiding principle in our apparel sections. Nothing is chosen for this store which does not meet authentic standards of good style and good taste. Thus it becomes a very real delight to shop for new clothes at Strauss-Hirshberg's.

Coats—at $54.00

—The sculptured lines of the new silhouette govern the styling of these coats. Quite an ingenious use is made of wolf, caracul, pointed fox, skunk, and dyed muskrat, in the fashioning of collars and cuffs. The size range includes 14 to 46.

Other groups of coats priced $49.50 to $125.00

Frocks—at $15.00

—There's an exhilarating freshness of design about these dresses...most of which betray a decided interest in flares, soft necklines, and subtly pinched-in waists. You'll have difficulty deciding between satin and new silk crepes. The logical thing is to choose both! Sizes 14 to 46.

Other groups of frocks priced $10.00 to $69.50

(Second Floor)

Armistice Day

November 11th

—Will be marked by the sounding of taps, with Eagle Scout George Winter, Jr., as bugler. Be ready, when the assembly call is blown (one minute to 11:00) to join this commemoration of peace.

Johnstown Sends Large Class To Consistory

Johnstown carried off the honors at the fall reunion of the New Castle Consistory which will close with a dinner and dance this evening by having twenty-six in the class from that city, the largest number that has ever taken the degree here since the organization of the New Castle Consistory.

As an honor to the members from the class from the "Friendly City," this morning, Lee Shannon of that place entertained the candidates at breakfast at the Leslie Hotel. Besides the members of the class were others from Johnstown and a few invited guests. John S. Wallace, 33, deputy for Pennsylvania was the honored guest and made a most delightful talk to the visitors, telling them how New Castle was honored by their presence. Other invited guests were J. R. Osborn, DuBois, and C. Ed. Brown of this city. The members of the class and others from Johnstown who were present were—

Chas. E. Marks, sheriff Carl Steuer, Chief of Police Chas. E. Briney, Chief of the Fire Dept., Harry Schultz, Chief of Police Wm. H. Woods, of Westmont, Leon P. Bennett, Lieut. Governor of the Kiwanis club of the Johnstown district; Jas. W. Cook, zoning commissioner of Johnstown, Albert L. Cooper, Geo. W. Dropp, Geo. D. Flickinger, David J. Harris, Herbert J. Klein, Wm. H. Llewellyn, Samuel W. Morgan, Jas. P. Pinder, Chas. F. Rorabaugh, John O. Taylor, C. W. Varner, Bennett B. Wertz, Salvator Johnour, Wm. C. Lamp, W. G. Reese, Cliff F. Bollinger, Earl A. McKeever, Ben. Bole, Samuel C. Dickey, Chas. Ober, Dr. J. Sawn Taylor, Nick Funk, Geo. Funk, Harry B. Hershey and Lee Shannon.

Yesterday quite a few of the Johnstown visitors went to the Jordan game farm in Scott township where they were the guests of Henry J. Sines.

Mayor Anticipates Rabbit Chase On Saturday Morning

Bunnies which today are playfully flitting through the brush of Plain Grove township are hereby warned to keep their ears cocked and their legs pruned for action tomorrow!

Mayor Gillespie is going hunting. Yes-Sir, the mayor who is quite an adept with gun and shell today said in answer to a question by Councilman Tyler—

"When are you going hunting?"

"Tomorrow."

Apparently the office of a mayor is one which needs attention. The chief executive of the city has been trying to find an "off day" ever since the small game season opened and until he is actually in the field he will not believe he has been able to find time to go hunting.

So far he has not promised to provide his councilmanic colleagues with any rabbits so that they can have

Immense Cost Of Reckless Driving

New Castle And Lawrence County Drivers Are Sharing In Cost

Every time the clock ticks off sixty seconds, the American motorist, as a class, is paying $1736.00 in one form or another, and New Castle drivers are helping to pay this cost. The figures are arrived at by the American Research Foundation.

In 1928 29,000 lives were lost in accidents according to the report, and a valuation of $290,000,000.00 was placed upon these. Injuries, destruction of property, replacements and loss of time from work is placed at $900,000,000.00.

The daily cost is $2,500,000.00, or an hourly cost of $104,166.00. This is the cost of reckless driving.

Retired Veteran Calls At Offices

Stock Market Nearer Normal

Transactions Much Below Record Volumes Of Past Few Days

PRICES FLUCTUATE
ONLY FEW POINTS

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A flood of profit taking and selling of "support stock" blocked the rally in prices today, after many of the speculative leaders had started the day a few points higher.

The most important feature of the market today was the decline in the volume of transactions to considerably below 4,000,000 shares and the orderliness of the movement of prices, as compared with the last few sessions. Stock sales at noon aggregated 2,218,900 shares against 5,386,200 in the same period yesterday, and in place of the 10-and-20-point dips and rallies in the fast-steppers, few stocks wandered more than 2 or 4 points from Thursday's closing levels. After the first half-hour the trend of prices was downward, though losses were comparatively small. General Electric declined about 8 points to 216. American Tel and Tel lost 3 points; U. S. Steel 2; American Can 3; Johns Manville 1. On the other hand, most of the utilities sold higher. Columbia and Consolidated Gas moving up about 3 points. Westinghouse lost 3 and Radio 2.

Trading was materially reduced by the unwillingness of professionals to commit themselves on either side of the market on the eve of a double holiday. With forward liquidation near completion, it was believed that heavy pressure had been permanently lifted.

In place of the 90-minute delay in ticker reports of stock sales in the final period, the tape was only 17 minutes late at the close today. Reaction of the upheaval in Wall Street in the last few weeks was seen today in the reports of further tapering off of business, particularly in the luxury and semi-luxury classes, with the unfortunate effects of a considerable lay-off of workmen. Most of the commodity markets were unsettled as the result of increasing production and a falling off in spot demand. Wheat lost 3 cents a bushel in Chicago and New York, and Cotton sold off about a dollar a bale.

Steady selling pressure was maintained against the whole list in the final period and the market closed lower. United States Steel sold off 3 1/2 points at 171. Radio lost 2 points at 35 1/2. General Electric lost 9 points at 215; Montgomery Ward 4 points at 58 1/2; American Can 4% at 115 1/2. National Cash Register gained 2 1/2 points at 78 1/2 and slightly higher prices were quoted at the close of the motor stocks, Nash gaining nearly 5 points at 52.

Maria Estardus To Get $25,000

Judge Refuses To Grant $75,000 To Woman Alleged Spanked By Harry
K. Thaw

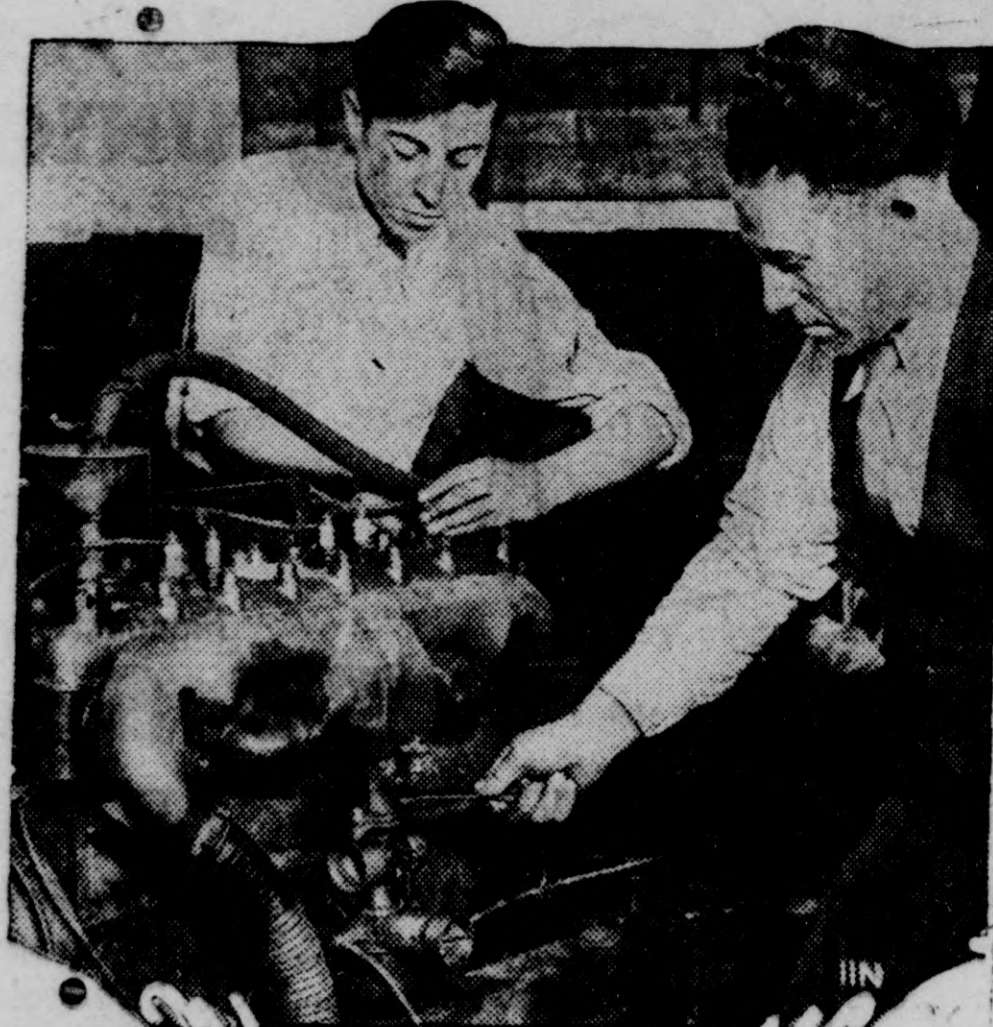

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The jury that decided the spanking Harry Thaw gave Maria Estardus was worth $75,000 was itself figuratively spanked today by Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy when he reduced the damages to $25,000.

Thomas J. McGrath who withdrew from the case when Thaw insisted on taking the stand in his own behalf only to return as counsel after the verdict had asked Justice Levy to set aside the judgment on the ground that it was excessive.

A jury gave Miss Estardus the verdict on her testimony that Thaw spanked her with a hairbrush during a New Year's Day party in his apartment. Justice Levy's action in cutting two-thirds off Miss Estardus' verdict will result in Thaw giving up plans to appeal.

Eighty Women Will Gather For Dress Rehearsal

Fellowship Night Promises To Be A Great Success; Caste
Will Rehearse Tonight

Eighty persons will gather in the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock for the grand dress rehearsal of the World Fellowship program which will be presented with no admission charge to the public, Monday night.

Chinese, Irish, Italian, American Polish, Hungarian and Afro-American groups will be presented in songs and dances in this splendid program. Never in the history of New Castle has the Y. W. C. A. presented such a unique program and with such a large number of persons in the cast.

It is expected that many local people will be present Monday night to witness the fellowship program. A feature of the evening will be a talk by Mrs. Carrie Jeffries Roberts, well known New Castle woman, who has traveled in many countries of the world.

VIEWERS ACCEPT NESHANNOCK SPAN

Will Recommend Court To Formally Stamp Approval On Bridge

Viewers formally accepted the North street bridge when they met this morning and made a final inspection. The viewers consisted of Albert P. Treser, Thomas E. Weide and Attorney C. A. Patterson. Glenn Throop of the county engineer's office represented the county.

The board will recommend the Lawrence county court to accept the span and make payment.

John A. Byers was the contractor of the bridge. The cost was $74,500.

Plane Crashes In France, Is Report

Believe Several Killed As Paris-Brussels Airplane Crashes; Reports Unconfirmed

(International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 8.—Several persons were reported killed today in the crash of a Paris to Brussels passenger plane outside of Paris, according to word reaching here.

No details of the reported crash are known.

Crashes Unconfirmed.
PARIS, Nov. 8.—Two airplanes of the Paris-Brussels line were reported to have crashed near Le Mans today, according to unconfirmed news reaching Paris.

Three persons were said to have been hurt in the crash, according to first reports. No details of the crash were available.

Infected Leg Is Fatal To Youth

(International News Service)
CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 8.—Carl Brinkley, 12-year-old son of Isaac Brinkley, Springfield township is dead today following an operation for an infected leg, said to have resulted from bruises he received from a whipping administered by a school teacher. The father said that pupils had told him that Arthur Daur, 23, of Mason-town had whipped Brinkley in school and that when he pushed the lad his leg struck a desk, causing bruises in which infection started.

No legal action is expected to be taken for the alleged punishment which is said to have taken place September 26.

Rural Carriers To Meet Saturday

Twenty-five men, members of the Rural Mail Carriers organization, will meet at the post-office, Saturday evening, at 7:30. The organization consists of rural mail carriers of the entire county.

At the Y. W. C. A., Saturday evening, the wives of the Rural Carriers will have a meeting. This is the first time the meeting has ever been held in the Y. W. C. A., it usually has taken place in the homes of the members.

Finger Nails Now Are Emerald Green

(International News Service)
PARIS, Nov. 8.—Deep emerald green is the newest shade for smart finger nails now being adopted by chic Parisiennes following the craze for vivid red finger tips.

There is also a dark bottle green shade, popular for women wear this winter. The new fad in finger nails, the couturiers say, say to match them with the jewels one wears.

Legion Post Will Meet Tuesday Eve

Perry S. Gaston post No. 349, American Legion, will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Legion Home association building on North Jefferson street Tuesday evening.

Plans for the coming membership drive will be the principal order of business to be taken up during the evening.

State D. A. R. Regent Praises New Castle And Convention Here

In a letter to Mrs. James Tolles, regent of Lawrence chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Joseph M. Caley, state regent of the organization, expresses her appreciation of the treatment accorded the delegates at the recent conference held here. The letter follows:

November 4, 1929.
My Dear Mrs. Ray:—

In the words of Irving Berlin, the popular song writer, "The song is ended but the memory lingers on." New Castle surely lived up to its reputation, for no less a personage than Judge Eugene Bonniwell of Philadelphia informed me that "it was a wonderful place for a convention" and that "all the people do everything possible for the comfort and the happiness of the visitors."

The Daughters of the American Revolution can with great veracity echo this sentiment.

The hospitality committee gave us their best attention, taking us to our hotels and the homes of the hospitable residents quickly and comfortably. I cannot say too much in favor of The Castleton and its hospitable manager, Mr. John L. Slack, who made us feel that we were really in our own home. All service was promptly and cheerfully rendered. The young maids and the housekeeper need special commendation for their very efficient service. Pages could be written on this subject alone.

The Scottish Rite cathedral proved a perfect setting for our conference. We were comfortable, we trod soft carpets, we sat in comfortable seats in a hall adequately heated and perfectly lighted.

On Thursday evening we had the great privilege of using the theater, witnessing the amazingly beautiful display of lights, hearing the splendid organ and listening to one of the gifted members of the cathedral as chief speaker, Honorable James J. Davis.

The members of your committee were more than attentive to duty. All seemed to unite in trying to make our conference the success it proved to be.

For this beautiful, loving service, I have much cause to be personally thankful.

The publicity was abundantly generous—the mantle of Wells and Pulitzer having apparently fallen upon the shoulders of Mr. Richards, whose personal attention to our needs were so pleasantly and graciously accorded.

The motto of everyone seemed to be "There is work to do—let us do it"—and each one did.

The members of the Pennsylvania state conference can never cease to think of New Castle and the members of the Lawrence chapter with grateful admiration—the state regent has the most cause for loving appreciation.

With affectionate regard,
MARY ALLEN CALEY,
(Mrs. Joseph M.) State Regent.

U. S. Has Majority Of All Telephones

Canada Runs Close Second With New Zealand Third

(International News Service) BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Both in actual number of telephones and in proportion to the population the United States leads the world and of the 34,600,000 telephones now in operation throughout the world approximately 20,000,000 are in the United States, according to the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

For every hundred persons in this country there are 15.3 telephones while Canada was second with 13.2 according to statistics compiled. New Zealand was third with 10 per every hundred. In total number of telephones however Germany was second to the United States but in proportion to population it had only 4.4 instruments of population for each one hundred persons of population and the proportion in France and England was even smaller.

Attention was also called to the extensive use of telephones in farms and small communities. In the smaller communities of the United States there were 12.2 instruments for every hundred of population and for this class of service New Zealand ranked second with 10 and Canada third with 9.6.

Gowns Must Match Jockey's Colors

(International News Service) PARIS, Nov. 8.—Costumes must match the colors your jockey chooses, if one is smart this autumn season. Senora Martinez de Hoz, well-known South American beauty, set the ball rolling on the opening day at Longchamps by appearing in a black frock and crimson toque, the colors of the lucky jockey who rode her husband's winner. Wives of celebrated horse fanciers have followed suit.

Here's Our Story Of Dirigible Route Over New Castle

Probably the argument will never be settled to the satisfaction of everybody, and it now appears that there should have been something done to settle it yesterday.

The argument is this: Did the Los Angeles pass over your street or else? Or else what? Or else did it pass over some other street?

Since the big zip went over New Castle Thursday at noon there have been several thousand arguments as to just where it crossed the city and over whose house it hung almost directly.

Where Was It?
One lad insists that the Los Angeles came up Beaver street. His friend insists it came down East Washington street and went out East street, and still another lad insists that it came down West Washington street.

A lad on the West Side said it hung directly over his house, and another one on Crawford avenue said all he needed to shake hands with the pilot was to have a ladder.

The answer to all of the argument is that with the Los Angeles 1,500 or more feet in the air it was a hard thing to say just where it was unless you were on a height or directly under it.

Some of the observers on The News staff saw it from the roof of the building, and without any attempt to settle the argument you can have their word for it.

First of all, the Los Angeles came over Ellwood City and then over West Pittsburg and New Castle Junction. Hence it must have come from the south. Standing on The News building, it appeared to come directly over the steel mill, headed northeast. As it came over the mill property it veered slightly and passed over Washington street on the bias, flying north and east, just east of The News building. Had the Los Angeles come straight down to earth then, it would probably have dropped on the City building.

About a mile north, or about Euclid avenue, it veered again and headed for Youngstown.

And that's our story, mates!

ROAMING

With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Hope you were able to drop in on the Needlework Guild ingathering in The Castleton yesterday. Something that should have been seen by a lot of people, for if you care to take your opinions second hand, it was just about the most unusual thing in the village this week, barring the "Los Angeles."

This Needlework Guild is the nearest thing to 100 per cent efficient charity I can think of. There are no profusion charges, no overhead, no field workers or organizers to pay. The ladies just get together for the purpose of contributing new articles of clothing for distribution among the poor, and having decided to do that, they just go ahead and do it. The result is that all they contribute goes where it was intended, without any shrinkage.

Some of the articles are bought, many of them are made. There is one young matron of the city, for whom you have even more respect than ever after seeing her section display. There must have been fifty knitted articles there, little sweaters, mittens and helmets, and all of them done in her spare moments.

The 'Graf Zeppelin' may have sneaked in on us at night, but we got a real eyeful of the 'Los Angeles.' And everybody is sure it went "right over the house."

A graceful thing it was, long and slender, and trim and natty, and as it roared across the city one couldn't help wishing he was on board.

Over in Akron they are starting a Zep that will make the Graf and the Los Angeles look like aerial rowboats. If you saw the Los Angeles yesterday, multiply its size by two and add a bit more and you have an idea of the size of the new SRS-4 which was started yesterday.

There is art in everything. Whether you paint a mural or a hen house, whether you mold a statue of a stove lid, whether you compose a poem or a lemon pie, there is art in it. And Ellwood City seems to have some artists in building lemon pies.

Had the pleasure of loading up on some Ellwood City lemon pie last night, after a preliminary workout with a flock of sausage, and beans. The sausage was prime, but that lemon pie deserved a sonnet or at least a quatrain.

Just to look at it was satisfying but to wrap your face around it was triple plated bliss. Big healthy cuts of it, with the custard about two inches thick, and that topped off with a covering of meringue that had the delicate coloring of a Corot or a Rembrandt. Seemed almost a shame to eat it, but it would have been a bigger shame to have left it.

Don't know who made it, but lemon pies like that should be on display in an art museum.

Plenty on the card for this week end. Tonight, "Tommy" in the Senior High School with a promise of laughs and entertainment. Tomorrow, South High at Youngstown, with a hope of touchdowns and victory.

Will Drain 2000 Acres Of Swamp

NORTH LIBERTY, Pa., Nov. 8.—Drainage of 2000 acres of muck land near North Liberty to reclaim this acreage for growth of vegetables is announced to take place November 12 between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m.

A ton and a half of dynamite will be used in the ditching program to drain this huge swamp. Fred Weber of the DuPont Co. will be in charge. The ditch will be a mile in length. It is the first big demonstration of its kind ever held in this county. The reclaimed land will be beyond price as a celery growing spot, it is said.

Anticipation is a part of the original process; realization is the discovery it has gone flat.

Local World War Veterans Will Attend Services In Memory Of World War Dead

Many veterans of the World War from New Castle are planning to attend the annual memorial services for the World War dead which will be held in the Regent theater in Beaver Falls on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis will be the main speaker and will deliver the memorial address.

The stage of the theater will be converted into a miniature cemetery, with white crosses 30 inches high for each veteran from Beaver Falls and Koppel who has "gone West."

Legion Of Honor Names Officers

Howard Geary Named Commander Of Consistory Organization For Coming Year

New officers were named to serve during the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the Legion of Honor of the New Castle Consistory at their meeting in the Cathedral last evening.

Howard Geary was named commander. He has been filling the office since the resignation of Capt. M. L. Craig, former head of the Reserve Officers of the local district who was transferred to Salt Lake City last spring.

Other officers named were: Senior vice commander, Ross Aibel; junior vice commander, Chester Sweazy; adjutant, Alfred Chilton; chaplain, R. Loy Boyd; personnel officer, Clinton Carroll; finance officer, Albert Hewitt; trustees, William H. Dunlap, Sr., Walter S. Reynolds, William Wignall, Wilbur Chapman and Ivor V. Davis.

Commander Geary will announce the appointment of vice commander for the various districts in the near future.

Col. Thomas Fitzgerald, president of the Pittsburgh Railways company, who was commander of the 308th Ammunition Train, will be the principal speaker at the banquet of the organization to be held in The Castleton Saturday evening at 6:30 in connection with the annual reunion of the organization here.

Headquarters for the reunion will be established at The Castleton, and several hundred members of the organization from outside the city are expected here, in addition to the 64 local members.

Clarence A. Leslie, head of the reunion committee has outlined a good program of entertainment for the evening.

Westminster Sorority Presidents

ELEANOR GRAHAM

Martha McMurray

Ruth Brown

MARGARET ANDREWS

MARGARET BRICKLEY

Emma Ochiltree

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—If you want to be president of a Westminster college sorority, better reside somewhere in the Pittsburgh district. At least it looks that way, for three presidents of the co-ed Greek letter societies are from Pittsburgh and three others are from nearby towns. Miss Emma Ochiltree, Pittsburgh, is president of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority; Miss Eleanor Graham, Pittsburgh, is president of Chi Omega sorority; Miss Ruth Brown, Elma, is president of Sigma Kappa sorority; Miss Margaret Brickley, Cresson, is president of Phi Delta Chi sorority; Miss Martha McMurray, Canonsburg, is president of Kappa Alpha Alpha sorority, and Miss Margaret Andrews, Vanport, is president of Pi Rho Phi sorority.

These young ladies are all active in other campus organizations and activities at Westminster. Sororities, six in number, each have from 18 to 25 members. A new honorary musical sorority, Omicron Mu Gamma, was recently recognized. This newest organization, while not fully active as yet, is headed by Miss Kathryn Johnson, Bellefonte, Pa.

Inter-District K. Of C. Meeting Being Planned

Will Take Place In New Castle
On Next Wednesday Night

The Knights of Columbus of the fourth and 21st Pennsylvania districts will hold an inter-district smoker and entertainment at St. Mary's council No. 512 at New Castle on Wednesday evening, November 13. The participating councils are Butler, Sharon, Greenville and New Castle, councils in the fourth district, and Washington, Archbishop Canevin, Chartiers, Pittsburgh and Coraopolis councils in the 21st district.

This smoker will be an unusual event inasmuch as it will be a joint meeting of nine councils. It is expected all officers of the councils within these two districts will be in attendance, as well as district officers from these and nearby districts.

Following a short business session of St. Mary's council which will be started at 8 p. m. the meeting will be conducted by the committee of lecturers from the 21st district. The committee in charge is James L. Lynn of Coraopolis, John F. Seeburger of Pittsburgh, Paul C. McCann of Chartiers, J. Leo Coleman of Carnegie and John McCann of Washington council. The committee of lecturers, while not announcing a program in detail, states that there is a splendid array of talent available for entertainment and the unique character of such a meeting has already created much interest in western Pennsylvania.

Heirs To Estate Are Sought Here

Through The News, Henry C. Fowler of Toronto, Can., is seeking to locate heirs to an estate of $35,000 in the local district. Descendants of Sarah McConnell, who was born near New Castle about 1853, are sought by Mr. Fowler. Her father's name was John McConnell.

Shimmy Is Found To Be Good For Health

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—If you can get into your bathroom and indulge in a light "shimmy" it'll be the best thing in the world for your system, according to Dr. J. W. Torbett, at a joint session of the American Electrotherapeutic Association-Western Association of Physical Therapy. "If done in your own room—and in your shimmy—where no one but God and the devil can see you, and to marching music, it is a beneficial exercise," he says. Follow the shimmy with a hot and cold shower and the exercise is complete. Will make a "business man feel like a two-year-old," he said.

Doctors Fix Rates For Phone Advice

New York State Town Has Innovation In Matter Of Doctor Bills

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The 25 physicians who live and practice in Peekskill and environs have taken the bulls by the horns. The medical profession has been revolutionized and the world has been made safe for bigger and better doctor bills.

It is a well known fact that the ordinary doctor would make considerable more money if he'd have his telephone taken out. But a telephone is a necessity in a physician's office, so there you are.

Women and men, too, call up the doctor and ask what they should do about baby's colic; what to do about that pain in the left side; what to put on a burned hand, and so on. And the poor medico just doesn't have the nerve to send out a bill.

But the local organization of physicians has put a stop to free medical information via the telephone. Hereafter, a flat rate of $1 will be charged for all telephone consultations, whether the patient lives or dies, recuperates or continues suffering. The organization also has set a flat rate of $2 for an office call, $3 for a residential or hospital call in the daytime, and $4 for a residential or hospital call at night.

There seems to be a few women and girls who would rather dress in style than in good taste.

Oven-fresh Boscul Coffee insures wonderful flavor!

Flavor has made Boscul famous. This balanced blend of the world's best coffees is the delight of coffee lovers!

Boscul is not only perfectly roasted... but all the goodness of Boscul Coffee is sealed air-tight in the famous Boscul vacuum can... delivered oven-fresh for your table.

Vacuum packed is the only way you can get the full flavor... full strength... full aroma of coffee—always oven-fresh no matter when the can is opened.

Coffee packaged any other way loses strength, gets stale and does not fully satisfy. Get Boscul for its goodness and economy! Enjoy its oven-freshness! You'll get real satisfaction... full money's worth every time.

Serve them something new—something different! Bean Hole Beans!

The old-time lumber cooks seal choice beans and pork, sweetened with brown sugar and molasses, in a great, iron pot—bury it underground in fragrant, glowing embers in the "bean hole." Never were beans so delicious as with this "baked-in-the-ground" flavor.

BEAN HOLE BEANS

give you this same distinctive "outdoors" flavor of the North Woods cooking. Van Camp food experts choose the choicest beans and sugar-cured pork, add just the right amount of brown sugar and molasses and send you this—the finest beans ever sold.

Easy to try—just empty the can in a buttered baking dish—in the oven for 20 minutes. Then the crisp, luscious, brown beans of the North Woods are ready for the most appetizing meal you can serve. Two sizes, medium, 15c; large, 25c.

Pastor Flays Boy And Girl Petting Habit

Only An Old Evil Under New Name, Asserts Pastor Of Denver Church

SAYS KISS LOWERS RESPECT OF BOYS

By M. F. DACEY,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
DENVER, Nov. 8.—"Petting" is only an old habit under a new name. It is beautiful and clean when used as a pure expression of affection between engaged couples, but it is the "cheapest bargain counter" of the "lowest type of social intercourse" when engaged in promiscuously by those only in search of thrills.

That was the admonishment of Rev. A. E. Cooke, pastor of the fashionable Boulevard Congregational church here before a gathering of the younger members of his congregation. His topic was "Is Petting Low?"

"Better be lonely than low," admonished the pastor.

Advice To Girls
"No girl should ever do anything that cheapens herself or lowers her in the esteem of anyone else. Petting does. She wonders why, after she has allowed one fast youth to pet her, clean, young friends want to do likewise."

"The word has been passed around that she is an 'easy mark,' and she has at once become the target of osculatory arrows in the hunt for thrills."

"Just as soon as these fellows kiss a girl their respect for her is lowered forever. She has stepped down to a cheap common level, and henceforth the interest in her is how she can be used for amusement purposes."

"In all relations of boys and girls the boy is the natural protector. The youth who uses his leadership or his glamor to rob a girl of her modesty and self-respect, and the girl who capitalizes her sex attraction to gain favors are both moral and social freebooters."

Don't Be Cheap
"If you cultivate a taste for the cheap and sensual, you never can enjoy the true and spiritual. Some people have become so free with their favors, they have so abused the whole sex relationship, that they cannot experience the rich, spiritual intimacies of real love-making."

"That is only one of the tragedies that follows the chase after thrills—the emotional resources have been squandered and the capacity for refined and lovely experiences of genuine love have been lost."

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE QUIET HERE

No General Observance Of Day Will Be Made By Local Veterans Organizations

Armistice Day will be quietly observed in New Castle, no general observance of the day being planned by local World War veterans' organizations, because of the tri-county celebration planned at Butler, which will be participated in by members of the Perry S. Gaston post of the American Legion and Harry L. McBride post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mention of the occasion will be made from the pulpits of the various churches Sunday, but no specific service sponsored by the veterans here is planned.

Next year the tri-county Armistice Day celebration will be held in New Castle, when veterans from Mercer and Butler counties will come here for the day.

Men Dancers Scarce In Boston College

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Nov. 8.—"Wanted: Two men to dance the minuet."
Conspicuously displayed on the bulletin boards of the ten schools and colleges of Boston University, the above notice sent for a solid week with nary an applicant.

And thus was the definite ascendency of the modern fox-trot made plain.

And so the Society ladies seeking the two men to participate in a B. U. festival began a search for co-eds to do the ancient dance.

Captain Mary B. Green, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is the only authorized woman river pilot in the United States. She is also at the head of an extensive business.

Telephone "Talkie"
Latest Invention

No Need In Future For Subscriber To Give Telephone Operator Numbers

Invention Perfected Will Be Means Of Saving Time And Saving Of Voice

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The "talkies" today had invaded the telephone field.
A new "talkie" device by which a dial telephone speaks its called numbers to central while the subscriber maintains silence has been perfected by the Bell Telephone laboratories and, according to the company, will be in use here soon.

With the new automatic telephone which was demonstrated last night before the Telephone Pioneers Society by Sergius P. Grace, assistant vice president of the Bell laboratories, no one is required to utter a sound. The subscriber merely dials the number desired and the new invention speaks the number to central, to whom it alone is audible.

Grace demonstrated the device by carrying into the audience a telephone with a long cord connected with a loudspeaker which represented central. A member of the audience dialed 8561-T. There was no sound save the clicking of the dial.
Two seconds later, the loud-speaker spoke up clearly, in an almost human voice, "8561-T."

Grace also showed how a telephoned message could be transmitted through the body of one man to the ear of another, or through the bodies of two or three men, if they joined hands.

Afternoon Suit

This chic afternoon suit of black broadcloth is trimmed with black galayk. The fur collar ties over in Ascot fashion and the deep flared cuffs lend interest to the up-in-front movement of the jacket. The skirt drops four inches below the knees, and the belt fits snugly at the natural waistline.

from the Warren, O., Union.

Stevenson Case

Decision Near

Council Many Announce Decision On Plumbing Inspector Next Week

Mayor William Gillespie and colleagues of city council today agreed to meet Monday afternoon in the mayor's office and it is probable that when they emerge they will hand down a decision in the Stevenson case.
The case is one in which master plumbers and journeymen plumbers asked for the removal of Stevenson.
Council has heard all the evidence which consists of 93 pages of testimony.

Authorize Lights
At Parking Plot

Council met today in city hall and approved an application for lights at the municipal parking ground, Lawrence and South Mercer streets. The lights have already been installed as council instructed Councilman Davies several days ago to proceed with the arrangements.

Committed To Jail
On Serious Charge

Jesse Arridondo, a Saniard, has been committed to jail by Alderman Mantz on a charge of felonious rape made by Chief of Police C. C. Horner. It is claimed that Arridondo attacked Mary George, a 15-year-old girl, by luring her into his home.

man in his sub-division will also be among the guests.

The affair is scheduled for 6 o'clock in the Carver Hall hotel.

Hot Water Heater

In Furnace Bursts

Firemen were called to the home of Nick Lorenzo of 416 Hawthorne street at 7:15 last evening, by an alarm from box 33, when a hot water heater installed in the furnace room at the home, burst, forcing steam and smoke into the cellar.

While there was no danger of fire,
the escaping steam and smoke presented a terrifying spectacle to occupants of the home. No damage resulted from the blast.

Former Local Man

Volant And New Wilmington-Pulaski Roads To Be Finished Soon

Improvement of both the Volant and the Pulaski-Wilmington roads will be completed within the next five days, providing the weather is favorable, according to County Commissioner C. C. Boyd. The Volant road will stop about one-fourth mile from the village of Volant, but there will be a good ash road, the remaining distance. When the improvement of the Volant road was asked the application was for three miles from the end of the present concrete.

It was believed that this would be sufficient to run the road into Volant, but it has been found to be insufficient.

Senators Have Great Time With "Toys" In Session On Thursday

(Information News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A miniature "five and ten cent store," erected on the floor of the senate to serve as evidence in the tariff wars, provided an opportunity Thursday for senators to play the roles of small boys.

The "store," containing scores of toys, comprised imported articles, manufactured abroad at low cost and imported under low tariffs to usurp American markets. There were musical instruments, a canary bird cage, lamps, a sword cane, a huge box of tin soldiers, jugs, bottles and jars, sets of dishes, a Japanese screen, paintings and kitchen utensils.

Senators played with the "evidence" with as much zest as a group of children getting new toys on Christmas morning. Senators laughed when Senator Vandenberg (R) of Michigan, took a pretty purple bottle and placed it ostentatiously on the desk of Senator Brookhart (R) of Iowa, the dry who told about a "Wall Street booze party."

The antics of the senators, topped by an effort of Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska, to play an imported violin, created such a disturbance that Vice President Curtis lost his composure and angrily called them to order.

LECTURES ON INDIA

N. S. Dhalwani, a former resident of India, gave an interesting talk Monday on the caste system used in India. He demonstrated several ways that the turbans are wrapped and sang a song in his native language. An admission of 10 cents was charged to the pupils who attended, for the purpose of covering his expenses.

ELECTION BY SCHOLARS

On Tuesday, Nov. 5, the civics class of the high school conducted an election in order to give the students practice in voting.

PITTSBURGH GIRL GAINS 11 POUNDS IN THREE WEEKS

Konjola, The New And Different Medicine, Restores Health And Happiness.

MISS DE RETTA WILLIAMSON

"Two years ago I underwent an operation that left me nervous and badly run down," said Miss De Retta Williamson, 6919 Tanager Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. "It seemed that I could not regain the weight and strength I had lost. I derived no nourishment from my food. I was tired all the time; could not get the proper rest at night, and it was difficult and suffering that I was able to carry on with my work."

"Konjola helped me from the start, and in three weeks I gained eleven pounds. My nerves are calm, I am much stronger, and am enjoying and getting benefit from my meals. I am continuing with Konjola, knowing that splendid and complete health is just around the corner."

Konjola is sold in New Castle, Pa., at Love & Megown drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Says No Cold Weather Until After Holidays

MT. CARMEL, Pa., Nov. 4.—Weather will be open and mild until after the holidays, Charlie Decker, tower operator for the Lackawanna railroad and a trusted weather prophet of Stroudsburg, has predicted.

"After that, however, we are in for some real old-fashioned winter," he added.

"I just keep my eyes open," replied the prognosticator when he was asked how he predicted future conditions. Angleworms are still near the top of the ground, and many of the migratory birds still linger.

Fire Protection To Be Increased

New Wilmington To Purchase Additional Hose And Equipment

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—Among other business discussed at the meeting of the local Council, Wednesday evening was the matter of fire protection. A committee was appointed to act in conjunction with a committee from the Volunteer Firemen's Association to work toward the betterment of the present situation.

The siren now in use was ordered paid for, and accessories were ordered for the siren to make it operative from some central location. In addition to this, 500 feet of hose will be purchased, and adapters were ordered to facilitate connection with the New Castle or other fire apparatus readily. Attorney William McElwee, Jr., was instructed to go to Philadelphia as the representative of New Wilmington, to protect the interests of the borough in the matter of the discontinuance of the Sharpsville Railroad.

Kiwanis Program For Anniversary

Evening Of Entertainment Planned For Next Tuesday's Affair At Grange

Complete plans for the 10th anniversary observance of the New Castle Kiwanis club were announced in bulletins mailed to club members today.

The affair is scheduled for Tuesday, November 12 at the Liberty grange hall on the Harlansburg road. The evening's program will get under way at 7 o'clock.

James K. Love will be the toastmaster and an evening of varied entertainment will be provided. Chicken will be the center of the menu with the usual trimmings.

Wives of the Kiwanians will be in attendance and an enjoyable evening has been planned for them.

This is not an extra meeting, but just the regular session one day ahead.

Miner Is Killed By Fall Of Roof

KITTANNING, Nov. 8.—Turney B. Richardson, 1004 Orr avenue, met almost instant death in the mines of the McNeese Coal Company, in Rayburn township, by a fall of roof. According to the first report received by Coroner A. W. Dosch, the unfortunate man and C. E. Beck another workman, were busily engaged when a section of the roof above suddenly gave way.

Richardson was caught under the fall and it was necessary to remove the debris before he could be extricated. Death occurred in a few minutes. Beck escaped being hurt.

Building Of New Castle Man Is Badly Damaged

Max Ludwig Suffers Loss By Fire At Rochester

ROCHESTER, Pa., Nov. 8.—Several firemen suffered slight cuts, nearby homes and buildings were endangered, and damage estimated at more than $10,000 resulted when fire, alleged to have been caused by defective wiring, destroyed a large two-story frame building, owned and occupied by the Max Ludwig Advertising Company, in Collidge way.

Three trucks, a touring car, modern spraying machine, paste mixing machine, lithographed posters and tons of unprinted paper were also destroyed. Lee Speer, superintendent of the plant, discovered the blaze. Several members of the Rochester fire department sustained slight cuts from the tin with which the building was lined.

Trucks were brought from the New Castle headquarters of the Ludwig Company today and service was resumed.

Representatives of the company said today that a new building will probably be erected at another location as soon as possible.

Berlin Mayor May Resign His Post

Rather Than Face Censure Mayor
Boess Of Berlin May Hand
In Resignation

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Nov. 8.—All newspapers of this city, regardless of political affiliations, joined today in predicting that Mayor Gustav Boess would probably resign following the culmination of the disciplinary trial which he demanded against himself.

A fist fight between Socialist and Communist representatives in the city council last night broke up the meeting of that body before an imminent vote of censure on the mayor could be taken.

His Honor now appears to have been forsaken by all but the Democrats and Socialists. All but members of these two parties have indicated willingness to censure the mayor or but disagree as to how far the censure should go.

Young Scripps Is Heard From

William J. Scripps, Missing Wealthy Detroit Youth Is Safe, Father Reveals

WHEREABOUTS IS STILL MYSTERY

(International News Service) DETROIT, Nov. 8.—William J. Scripps, 24, who has been missing for the last two weeks, has been found, his father, William E. Scripps, president of the Detroit News, announced Thursday.

A country-wide search for the youth, who is president of a concern which manufactures gliders, or motorless airplanes, has been in progress since his disappearance October 23. It was feared he had been kidnapped but the youth's father said he had been located and had not been detained against his will.

Statement Issued

The elder Scripps, a nationally prominent newspaper publisher, issued the following statement. "I am glad to advise my friends and the public in general that I have heard from my son, William J. Scripps. He has requested that I do not disclose, at the moment, where he is. I shall respect this request. I do not feel free to disclose presently the reasons which persuaded him to adopt the course he did. We hope that within the not too distant future that he will again resume his customary activities in his business affairs."

"Naturally his wife and Mrs. Scripps and myself have greatly worried over his absence and appreciate the many messages of interest which have come to us during his absence."

The representative form of government makes an interesting study. The trick is to discover what it represents.

Thinking Peace

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah as the waters cover the sea.—Isaiah, 11:9.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

From time immemorial there have been "wars and rumors of wars." War has taken a larger toll of human life than famine and pestilence combined, for it has been largely responsible for both famine and pestilence. The cost of war presents the largest single item in the burden of taxation for our own citizens and those of all the other nations of the world. With the military functions of government requiring 31.8 per cent of every American tax dollar, and our public debts, which were created largely by war, requiring an additional 51.1 per cent, no one will question the statement that war constitutes the world's most crushing burden. America's share of the cost of the World War in money alone has already greatly exceeded $5 billion dollars. Even this is inconsiderable when we think of its cost to the world of nearly 30 millions of men killed and wounded. In the shadow of such horrible experiences, war appears nothing short of suicidal.

The Dream of Peace

Isaiah lived in an age of almost constant warfare. His little nation lay in the path of the armies of all of the surrounding nations and, whether a party to the strife or not, suffered, no matter who won. Out of the prophet's sickness of heart at this constant warfare, God gave him, by inspiration, a dream of world peace which ever since has been the hope of a war sick world: "Out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

Seeking Peace and Pursuing It
This dream, so devoutly wished for through the ages cursed by war, is possible of realization only as we definitely set ourselves to "seek peace and pursue it" as St. Peter urges. We must teach our children the glory of peace times as well as of war time, and honor the heroes of peace no less than those of war. We must cultivate a peace mind that cannot be stamped by prejudice and propaganda to rush into war at the slightest provocation. Let us think peace and prepare for peace. Let us cultivate clear understandings between nations by such conferences as we have just witnessed between the prime minister of Great Britain and the president of the United States. Let us multiply our ambassadors of good will to all the nations of the world. Let us do more than agree by treaty to reduce and limit our military and naval armaments. Let us positively and definitely set ourselves to cultivate love and the spirit of brotherhood. This can only be done effectively as we accept through Christian faith the Fatherhood of God and proceed from this to practice the brotherhood of man, realizing, as St. Paul teaches us in this lesson that "he is Lord of heaven and earth, and hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth."

Devout religion is the truest patriotism, for as nations come to know and serve the true God they come to know and trust one another, for our golden text shows the kinship between universal worship and universal peace. (The International Uniform Lesson for November 10 is Isaiah 2:2-4, 11:6-10, 19:23-25; Acts 27:22-28; Ephesians 4:4-6, 13-19; John 4:20-21, the subject being, "World Peace.")

States Are Warned About Hoover 'Gift'

(International News Service) DENVER, Nov. 8.—When the 11 western "public land" states consider President Hoover's proposal to cede them surface rights to the lands, they are warned to take into consideration the fact that the government spent a half billion dollars on public lands as against a 200 million dollar revenue in 1927, according to Dr. Hubert Work, former secretary of the interior, now living in Denver.

"So far as our remaining public lands are concerned they are valuable mainly for grazing and timber. Three times I had a bill before the senate to give grazing rights on long term leases at a cost merely to cover administration expense. I intended that to include cost of supply water on hundreds of grazing areas that are now too isolated from water supply to be of any use to stockmen."

"This would have been true conservation and development."

Success Of Air Mail Reflected On Public

(International News Service) DENVER, Nov. 8.—Confidence in air transportation by the American public is the result of successful air mail service, according to Harry Rubincam, Jr., of the Western Air Express.

Addressing a group of local businessmen, Rubincam traced the history of the postal service from Colonial days down to the present era.

"Air mail planes complete 99 per cent of all scheduled flights and have instilled a confidence in the public that could not otherwise have been attained."

Denver is now the second largest user of air mail service in the country in proportion to population," Rubincam said.

San Quentin Leads Prison Population

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Nov. 8.—Breaking all existing records, San Quentin now has a convict population of 4,910, it was announced today by Warden James B. Holohan.

San Quentin, according to records on file here, is now the largest prison in the United States, its nearest rivals being the Texas and Ohio state penitentiaries.

These are the only three prisons in this country with more than 4,000 prisoners, although Joliet and Leavenworth are nearing this mark.

A Sweet Stomach Yours for the Asking

If you're troubled with "indigestion," excessive gas, belching, heartburn, distressing pains after eating, it's a sure sign of acid stomach. Correct this condition and you can eat almost anything.

There are a number of effective anti-acids on the market, but most of them give only temporary relief. Often they upset the chemical balance of the stomach, retard digestion, and do more harm than good. Don't experiment. Pape's Diapepsin is the tried-and-true remedy you can always depend on for instant relief and quick restoration of normal digestion.

Pape's Diapepsin does not retard but aids digestion, because it does not interfere with the flow of gastric juices. It neutralizes acids, soothes the inflamed lining of the stomach and promotes perfect assimilation.

National Farm Outlook

By ARTHUR H. JENKINS,
Editor The Farm Journal.
Written for Central Press.

It seems to be just about impossible to get rid of the idea that a farmer—or any one else, for that matter—is entitled to the "cost of production and a fair profit on what he produces."

In clamoring for that theory I regret to say that a certain type of farm leader is the worst offender and a certain type of politician is the next worst. It came up once more only the other day in a debate in the senate on the cotton situation.

A southern senator declared that the price of cotton around 18 cents a pound was artificially depressed and that since the cost of producing cotton was at least 20 cents the price ought to be 22 cents or higher.

No one with the slightest knowledge of economics or ordinary good business sense can listen to such an argument without a shudder.

For the fact is that cotton ought not and does not cost 20 cents a pound to produce. In the senator's own state it may be true, although these cost figures must always be taken with a grain of salt. An inefficient cotton grower using out-of-date methods and much hand labor could easily pile up costs of 20 cents or more.

But a good cotton planter can make cotton far more cheaply than that. In new cotton territory in the southwest they can produce it by machine methods for as little as 10 and 12 cents a pound and sales at 18 cents net such growers a fat profit.

Are we then to have prices based on the costs of the least efficient producers? Surely not. That would be to rob the consumer of cotton in order to keep incompetent and unlucky farmers growing cotton when they should be in some other business.

The same thing applies equally to other branches of agriculture. "Cost plus a fair profit" might be all right perhaps, if everybody's costs were about the same. But costs are not the same. In Ohio, for example, a recent investigation showed the cost of producing eggs on different farms to be anywhere from 20 to 53 cents a dozen. What is "cost plus a profit" on eggs in a case like that?

The truth is friends of agriculture who know what's what, long ago abandoned any such theory of correct selling prices for farm products.

What they want is prices that will encourage city consumers to buy the entire production at prices that will give a profit to most of the efficient producers. And that is all any business has a right to expect.

German Film Star Tired Of Being Vamp

(International News Service) BERLIN, Nov. 8.—Tired of representing "vamps" on the screen and revolting against a permanent, forcible weight reduction, Brigitte Helm, famous German film star declared war on the "Ufa" the biggest German film concern, and filed a suit against it demanding the cancellation of her contract.

"I am sick of playing 'vamps' she declared. 'Vamps are not my line. My artistic reputation is at stake and my health is about to be ruined by my being compelled to keep within a 120 pound limit.'

The Film Arbitration court rejected Brigitte's suit, ruling that the contract must remain effective. The Labor court to which Miss Helm appealed for a revision likewise decided that the contract was valid and suggested to the film star to sue for a repeal of the decision of the Arbitration court.

To Prevent Delicate Colors From Fading in Washing Machine

Simple Way to Stop Fade and "Soap Eat" Even When Ordinary Laundry Soap Is Used

Soap eat of fragile things and fading of delicate colors in either washing machine or tub can easily be corrected now, even when ordinary laundry soaps or powders are used.

Under the new method described here, even faintest pastel colors in fine lingerie or delicately tinted hosiery hold fast, according to recent tests, for as many as 50 washings, without noticeable fade or wear.

The method is very simple: To each tubful of water (or washer filled to the water line) you merely add 2 tablespoons of a preparation called CLIMALENE and use just ONE-FOURTH the quantity of soap you ordinarily use. Then proceed with washing as usual. (For light washing in small wash basins, a teaspoonful of CLIMALENE is enough.)

This preparation is used by experts to stop fade and soap eat. It acts by converting hard, or semi-hard water to rain water softness and to dissolve grease and dirt. White clothes, washed this way, never grow yellow—but wash pure white. Delicate colors hold fast. You can easily get it at any grocery store. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. Just ask your grocer for CLIMALENE.

Cat Starts Laying Away Money For Rainy Days

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. Nov. 8.—This is a tale of dark deeds and hidden treasure and of a cat who believes there is nothing like a bank account.

The cat is Go-go, the property of Mrs. Lillian Walker. He has a nice home and plenty of good food, but he knows that good times don't last forever. And he certainly doesn't want to become a common alley cat. So he decided to be on the safe side. Recently, while cleaning house, Mrs. Walker happened to lift a rug, and there she saw 85 cents. How it got there was a mystery until, several days later, when she dropped a coin near Go-go, he quickly took it in his mouth and carried it to his secret lair. Then he went down into the garden and brought his mistress a flower by way of peace making.

Microphones Find Use In Fox Farm Kennels

(International News Service) EISENBERG, Nov. 8.—At the silver fox farm in Tunschutz near this city the first established in Europe small microphones have been placed in all the kennels. This enables the manager of the farm to hear any unusual noise.

The less the animals are disturbed by humans the better they flourish and this is especially true during the breeding period. By the use of the radio such disturbing visits are reduced to a minimum.

To Auction Goods Of Kaiser's Sister

BONN, Germany Nov. 8.—Madame Zoubkoff, formerly Princess Victoria of Schaumburg, sister of the former Kaiser will pay for a romance tomorrow.

All her belongings will be auctioned off at Schaumburg palace to settle her debts most of which were incurred through her marriage to Alexander Zoubkoff, adventurous young Russian dancer and dish washer who came penniless to Bonn a few years ago and won the heart of the Hohenzollern princess.

Yale Offers House To New Haven Young

(International News Service) NEW HAVEN, Nov. 8.—Yale's gift to the children of New Haven takes the form of a house to be entirely devoted to their use, furnished with all manner of things that are instructive to children.

Three docents are in charge, two having salaries paid by the University and one by the city. Of the equipment Yale furnished most but grade school children did their share, constructing a Colonial house of logs and furnishing it in detail with things of their making, and setting up a Kiva, or Indian ceremonial chamber, also fully equipped.

The children of the city have a Travel club, Nature club, Stamp club, besides classes of instruction in arts and sciences fitted to their ages.

Long Struggle For Russian Industry

(International News Service) ALBANY, Nov. 8.—Soviet Russia will not be on a firm industrial basis for at least fifty years, in the opinion of former City Court Judge Edward N. Scheiberling, just returned from a visit in Russia.

"It is true," he said, "that in the more highly populated cities, factories and industrial plants have modern equipment, but in surveying the vast extent of Russian country one cannot but feel that real development is at least 50 years away."

Judge Scheiberling went to Russia as a member of a delegation of American businessmen under the direction of the American-Russian Chamber of Commerce.

Slam Now Opened To Plane Traffic

BANGKOK, Nov. 8.—Slam's jungles which once resounded only with the screech of parrots and the chatter of monkeys, have been opened by an airplane according to Don C. Bliss, trade commissioner here.

In the last six years planes in commercial service have flown 241,400 miles and carried 3,696 passengers without accident. More than 67,000 tons of merchandise and 17,000 bags mail have been transported.

War Vet Shrinks In Size With Each Year

(International News Service) SAWTELLE, Cal., Nov. 8.—Shrinking in size an inch each year, Joseph Mayott, 54-year-old world and Spanish war veteran presents a strange problem to medical science, it became known today.

Mayott is suffering from Paget's disease, the technical name for dissolving of the bony structure of the body, and medical science has admitted that it is unable to aid him.

In the past eight years he has lost nine inches in height, Mayott declared.

Two years ago he came to the soldiers' home at Sawtelle for treatment and since that time more than 400 physicians have examined him.

Less Marriages, More Divorces In Illinois

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—There were fewer marriages in 1928 than in 1927 but more divorces the department of commerce announced in Washington. In 1928, 79,725 couples were married and 15,703 couples divorced while in 1927 there were 80,222 married and only 14,984 divorced.

Always worn out—now out of a job!

HE LIVED in dread of this day... "fired." Yet he knew it was bound to happen. For months an invisible force had been stealing his strength—dulling his mind—wearing him out. And the pity was that he started business with the brightest hopes and best of health.

Many a man has gone through such an experience and lost the battle to constipation—that most relentless enemy of health and happiness. Many have constipation but do not realize it. Often it begins with headaches, sleepless nights, sallow complexions and bad breath. Too often it leads to serious disease.

But constipation can be relieved—prevented promptly. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to safely rid the system of this evil.

Only ALL-BRAN gives maximum results

It is bulk that relieves constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies bulk in generous quantity. In a part-bran product the amount of bulk is usually too small to be completely effective. That's why doctors recommend ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN brings natural relief

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is totally different from dangerous drugs and pills whose dose must be constantly increased to be effective. It works as nature works.

A pleasant cereal. Serve with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Use it in cooking too. Mix it with other cereals. Try it in soups. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. The health of the entire family can be maintained by serving ALL-BRAN in some form every day.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, restaurants. On diners. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Guaranteed! Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

Paul Revere Revealed Jack-Of-All Trades In Revolutionary Period

Famous Horseman Who Sav-

Dabbled In Many Kinds Of Business; Manufactured Copper For Steamboats

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Aside from galloping through the night and into history, Paul Revere, the patriotic horseman of the Revolution, engaged in a number of avocations including the sale of anti-prohibition liquor.

In correspondence made public today by E. H. R. Revere, great grandson of the Revolutionary hero, bills of lading are included showing that Paul Revere sold a consignment of rum at sixty cents a gallon and a case of gin at a proportionate bargain figure.

Other documents, hitherto unre-vealed, showed that Revere was America's original jack-of-all trades being at various times a dentist, a copper roller, a goldsmith, an engraver of the nation's currency, and a powder manufacturer.

Founded Copper Business.
In addition, he probably was the new republic's first great industrialist whose iron was in every commercial fire. The copper business which he founded in Boston is perpetuated today in a corporation headed by his great grandson.

The letters revealed that Revere supplied copper to Robert Fulton for the famous "Claremont," first steamboat.

Revere also was a manufacturer of picture frames and ran a hardware store on Essex Street in Boston.

Proud of Ability.

Revere was justly proud of his ability as a dentist and sent the following reminder to past and future clients:

"Artificial Teeth
"Paul Revere

"Takes this method of returning his most sincere thanks to the gentlemen and ladies who have employed him in the care of their teeth. He would now inform them and all others, who are so unfortunate as to lose their teeth by accident or otherwise, that he still continues the business of a dentist, and flatters himself that from the experience he has had these two years (in which time he has fixed some hundreds of teeth) that he can fix them as well as any surgeon-dentist who ever came from London, he fixed them in such a manner that they are not only an ornament, but of real use in speaking and eating.

"He cleanses the teeth and will wait on any gentleman or lady at their lodgings, he may be spoken with at his shop opposite Dr. Clark's at the North End, where the gold and silver-smith's business is carried on in all its branches."

The word "sin" is disappearing from our national vocabulary. The word "dude" was dropped, also, when everybody dressed up.

The Chinese have a fine racial pride. They had rather fight one another than the Reds.

Mrs. Alma Spreckles Rosencrans and Gold Thorn
At the recent second annual Seattle international horse show held in the civic auditorium arena in that city, Mrs. Alma Spreckles given in the church basement and the place was crowded to capacity.

The program was miscellaneous, the main feature of the evening being a mock wedding in which the majority of the characters were ladies. In the wedding scene the persons taking part were attired in old-fashioned costumes. The identities of persons taking part in this part of the program had not been disclosed and there was much hilarity on the part of the audience upon guessing the persons taking part. The program presented and characters taking part were as follows:

Selections by the Sabbath school orchestra, directed by Loy Gwin, throughout the program.
March by the children.
Recitation by Betty Lou Johnson.
"The Pet Speech," by Mrs. D. D.
Sleppy.

Mock wedding characters:

Cure For Seasickness
Installed On Liners

(International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 8.—Trans-Atlantic travellers will no longer have to fear seasickness for there has at last been invented what is claimed to be a positive cure for that illness.

This cure is now being shown at the Shipping, Engineering and Machinery Exhibition at Olympia. It is an atmiser containing chemically-prepared oxygen and in tests has been found to be safe, sure and harmless.

Atomisers attached to a specially constructed apparatus have been installed on North German Lloyd liners and on two White Star liners.

Norris Plans To Protect Farmers In Tariff Fight

Senator George Norris, Nebraska, Will Lead Fight For Protection To Farmers

WILL STAND BY
G. O. P. PLATFORM

Committee Recommendations Will Cause Long Controversy Is Indicated

By WILLIAM S. NEAL,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The veteran insurgent Republican, Senator George Norris of Nebraska today had assumed temporarily at least, the mantle of leader of the Democratic-Progressive coalition in a fight to prevent tariff boosts upon articles which farmers of the nation buy.

Declaring he is standing by the Republican platform adopted at Kansas City the Nebraskan announced he would assail every rate increase which would lift the farmer's cost of operation, unless proponents of the boost could present a clear case for more protection.

Successful Battle.
Norris had already waged a successful floor battle to prevent an increase upon some kinds of wire fencing and wire netting, which he asserted would increase the farmer's cost of doing business. The chief supporter of the higher duty was Senator Bingham (R) of Connecticut who was censured by the senate for placing a representative of the Connecticut Manufacturers association in the secret meetings of the finance committee. Norris fathered the resolution of censure.

He was ready to advance his tariff theory again in opposition to larger duties on hinges and butts, kitchen ware, needles and hooks, thumb tacks and other items.

Having denied the plea of steel companies to place manganese ore on the free list and slashed proposed increases in duties on structural steel and wire netting the senate whittled away at other items of the metals schedule today.

The senate finance committee's recommendations for higher duties on clocks and watches was expected to provoke a long controversy. Although the finance committee completely revolutionized the method of protecting these articles and cut some of the house rates. It placed schedules above the 1922.

There appeared to be little fight left in the "old guard" wing of the Republicans, but their refusal, to yield to coalition rates without votes continued to make headway progress on the tariff bill.

Thus far, however, the coalition had adopted many rates above the Fordney-McCumber schedules of 1922 and their willingness to grant increases in many items has caused some Republican regulars to express a willingness to go on through with the bill.

Perhaps the most severe blow suffered by the Republicans was the selection of several members on the manganese and structural steel tariff schedules. Senator Smoot (R) of Utah, chairman of the finance committee and three other Republicans reputed the committee's action in voting for a higher duty on man-ganese. Senator Jones (R) of Washington, acting Republican leader, voted against the committee on both manganese and structural steel, while other Republican regulars deserted the committee on the latter item.

Graham Becomes Federal Attorney

Beaver Man Takes Charge Of Pittsburgh Court As Prosecutor Thursday

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—Louis E.
Graham of Beaver was sworn in as United States attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania in federal court here Thursday, succeeding John D. Meyer, resigned.

Hundreds of friends of Graham were present when clerk of federal court, J. Wood Clark administered the oath.

Graham who returned to Pittsburgh Wednesday from Washington where he was said to have held conferences with Attorney General Mitchell and Senator David A. Reed regarding the appointment of assistants, was accompanied to the federal building by a number of friends.

The oath of office had been delayed because of charges made before the U. S. senate by Attorney John S. Pyle that Graham was not fit to become the prosecutor here. These charges were aired at a hearing in Washington recently and a few days later the appointment was confirmed.

On the eve of the opening of the November term of court next Tuesday, Graham has a task ahead of him that will require weeks of steady work. However, assistant United States attorneys have a number of cases ready for trial and the indictments to be present to the grand jury next Tuesday have been prepared under the direction of the secretary to Meyer.

It is understood that Graham will appoint two assistants to succeed Ralph H. Smith and Joseph A. Richardson within the next week in order that they may be sworn in and aid in the prosecution of cases at this term of court.

It was announced two weeks ago that the opening of criminal trials would be postponed until November 25 to permit the confirmation of Graham and the appointment of assistants to prepare the cases for trial.
The first two weeks beginning Tuesday will be devoted to the trial of civil cases.

SUNDAY MARITAL SHIP NEAR ROCKS

Rumors of divorce action in the family of George Sunday, son of the evangelist, have stirred the west coast since Mrs. Sunday is reported to have lodged complaints with the district attorney at Los Angeles charging her husband with infidelity. The Sundays are shown below. Above is Miss Maurine La Selle, dancer, who declares that she and Sunday intend to wed as soon as he obtains a divorce.

An Alarming Prediction

By S. S. MYERS

There is always some one who is trying to take the joy out of life. An article appearing recently in a magazine speaks of the devastation wrought by the last glacial period, and goes on to say that a like catastrophe may happen at any time. Listen to him:
"Many things have happened since that monster chunk broke loose from the ice-cap and covered continents and stifled every form of life in its brozen embrace. From where you stand, nothing in sight once grew or breathed. And all that's left to mark the passing of nature's most amazing mood are the pebbles and boulders littering nearby hills and streams. Such a catastrophe may occur again whenever the ruling forces of destiny decide to erase fauna, flora—humanity and its works. Nobody knows what ocean currents and precipitation are apt to do. All the magnificent adventure of recent imagination—all the controls which man has established over substance and energy can be broken like spider webs whenever sun and wind and subterranean fires elect to smash the loom on which we have so boldly woven the pattern of civilization."

How amazingly sad! How frightfully alarming! But wait a moment —let us not get excited. That writer's idea is that what is known as the Ice Age was caused by great sheets of ice breaking away from the Arctic continent, and that another such happening is liable to take place at any time. But I am quite sure geologists will agree that the idea is erroneous. The glacial period was not brought about in that manner; it was caused by the precession of the equinoxes—the slow, backward motion of the equinoctial points along the line of the ellipse.

In passing around the sun the earth describes an ellipse—not a circle, and the sun, instead of being in the center of the ellipse is 3,000,000 miles nearer the one focus. As it is, we are 3,000,000 miles nearer the sun in winter than in summer as we are passing the focus nearest the sun during that time; but, as our northern hemisphere is tilted away from the sun during the winter period we do not get its direct rays—they come to us slantingly.

But on account of the slow changes taking place in the precession of the equinoxes the time will come when we will be at the opposite focus of the ellipse and 3,000,000 miles farther away from the sun when the northern hemisphere is tilted away from it. As a result the summers will be short and hot and the winters long and cold. During the long cold winter the snow and ice will accumulate and the short summer will not succeed in melting all of it because it will not be so hot as might be imagined. The melting snow and ice will cause fog and dense clouds which will keep out most of the sun's heat, and the winter will be on again before all of the preceding winter's ice and snow have disappeared.

Thus, year after year, the ice will keep on accumulating and the northern ice-cap will be creeping farther and farther south until nearly all of of the northern hemisphere will be covered with a sheet of ice.

That is the way an ice age is ushered in—a gradual increase of ice and snow through the centuries; not a sudden breaking away of ice sheets from the polar regions. We are still receding from the last ice age and it will be thousands of years before we begin to approach the next one. So why worry?

Godfather Sued For $200,000 By Chicago Maiden

Man Waits Twenty Years To Wed Young Girl, Then Deserts Her At Alter

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Miss Eileen Bowen, 20, was christened in the arms of Michael Conroy nearly two decades ago; today she is suing her godfather, now 45 years old, for $200,- 000 in a breach of promise suit.

According to the suit, Conroy left his fiancée waiting at the church altar this fall and sent a notice of apology saying that he had to help his sister clean house.

At the christening nearly twenty years ago Conroy, according to the girl's relatives, cradled the infant carefully in his arms and joked about waiting until the girl grew up when he would marry her.

Occasional Spanking Is Advised As Punishment For Few Faults Only

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Most people seem to think that all child psychologists believe in allowing little children to do about as they please, just so long as they are able to express themselves. But there are a few psychologists who are old-fashioned enough to recommend some restraint of children. Here is one who even goes so far as to find a place for the good old-fashioned spanking which our grandmothers administered to us.

How shall it be done? By the bare hand applied to the baby's bare bottom. Be sure it's bare. A bottom armored with three or four piles of triangular trousers gets no pain. (Diapers are put on square now.)

Don't bump the baby. Strike low with surface slaps which sting but do not jar or bruise. The child's thighs are well cushioned.

When shall spanking begin? Not until the child begins to climb and walk. Then limit it to one or two dangers, like playing with the fire or turning on the gas.

Mother, long before this time you and dad sit down together and agree upon the few things for which the child always will be spanked, until he avoids them permanently. Limit yourself to these few things. Say "no" once as you proceed. Say nothing more. Be sure you have some attractive toys ready for him to turn to at once. Go about your business without a word, as if nothing happened. But be right there to spank the child at once if he reaches again for the gas jet. He must always receive pain immediately, just as if he had stepped upon an electric button, setting off the spanker.

Never use the word "no" up to this time and then only once, as you administer the pain. Don't yell; just say it. Make your palm painful; not your tongue. Save your tongue for tenderness and companionship.

Think of the frail mothers who are wearing themselves out with children whom they have not taught in infancy the first lessons in self-restraint.

About 10,000 little children every year in this country are killed while playing in the street. Nearly all could be saved if the pain is administered when first they venture to step off the curb alone. Isn't it much more humane to burn a baby's bottom with a spanking than to have his little life consumed by a conflagration or snuffed out by a passing motor car?

Use pain only to prevent. Don't spank the little child under three or four to make him do things, else you will teach him to be stubborn. Don't spank him to make him close the door, to say "please", or go to bed. Use all the time and patience necessary to get him to do such things hap-

Seed Potatoes Should Be Pitted, McCulloch States

Burying In Ground Prevents Loss Of Vitality During Dormant Period

Seed potatoes cannot be stored satisfactorily in a cellar containing a furnace. Even where there are heated rooms over the cellar it will be too warm for best results.

Potatoes properly pitted in the fall will keep dormant until late spring with the minimum of sprouting, shriveling, and loss of vitality. Such potatoes have yielded 60 bushels, an acre more than the same seed stored in the average house cellar, County Agent H. R. McCulloch reports.

"The pit should be located where there is good surface and soil drainage," McCulloch says. "Pits close to buildings are more likely to be invaded by mice and rats. Small quantities of seed, 40 bushels or less, may be stored in round pits. Larger quantities may be handled much more easily in pits about four feet wide and as long as necessary.

In preparing the pit, the surface soil to a depth of 6 to 10 inches is plowed out or thrown out for the entire length and width of the pit. The bottom is smoothed and a layer of straw put in. The straw should be thickest at the sides as frost is likely to work in at the ground line.

Pit Dry Potatoes Only

The potatoes should have had time to dry off thoroughly before pitting. Mr. McCulloch points out. Shipped potatoes should not be pitted or at least not covered heavily until after sweating and becoming dry. The potatoes should be piled up as high as they will stand without rolling out of the pit. Eight inches or more of straw is then put over the pile. Some farmers first cover the pile with a single thickness of burlap to keep the straw out of the potatoes. The soil thrown out is then put on the straw to a depth of about three inches and packed with the back of the shovel.

After the weather gets quite cool and all sweating and heating are over, but before the ground is frozen too hard to get more soil, another 8 to 12-inch layer of straw is put on and covered with six inches of soil carefully packed so as to shed water.

May Need Ventilation

Ventilation is sometimes provided by an open-end box made of 4 to 6 inch boards, extending a foot into the potatoes and two feet above the top of the completed pile, inserted in each round pit and every six feet in the

Legion Commander Asks Buddies To Recall Armistice

State Legion Commander Pinola Asks Legionnaires To Observe Monday

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Lamenting the tendency of many to lapse so far from the patriotic fervor exhibited during the trying days of the World War, Frank L. Pinola, Pennsylvania commander of the American Legion, Thursday issued an Armistice Day proclamation calling upon his fellow Legionnaires to rekindle their patriotism on November 11.

"Let us glorify, not war, but the spirit of self-sacrifice which led our buddies in the path of duty," he said, "in the hopes that there shall be rekindled at least in some degree, in our people, that flame of love of country burnt out all selfishness, sordidness and littleness more than a decade ago."

Fail To Approve Of Bank Merger

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Consolidation of the merger of the Corn Exchange Bank with the National City Bank of New York, to form the world's largest banking institution, was blocked Thursday by the refusal of a large number of stockholders of the City Bank to approve the consolidation.

Charles E. Mitchell, chairman of the National City Bank, in the course of the directors' meeting today, stated that the present tally of proxies and votes received disclosed that the total will fall short of the necessary two-thirds majority needed to approve the merger. Stockholders of the bank now total 55,000, Mr. Mitchell stated.

Check dandruff!

You, too, can say goodbye to hair-worries, if you'll learn this simple method of caring for the hair. It is known to hundreds of stage and screen stars; used by thousands of women and girls, who haven't time for laborious methods.

Sprinkle a little Danderine on your brush tonight. Then as you brush your hair you'll feel the soothing, toning effects.

For over 30 years, specialists have recommended Danderine; to dissolve the crust of dandruff; stop falling hair; tone the scalp, encourage the hair to grow long, silky and abundant.

The first application gives you hair new life and lustre; makes it softer, easier to manage; holds it like you arrange it. Evidence beyond doubt proves the benefits of its regular use.

long pits. Ventilators should be covered so that rain will not enter and they should be stopped in extremely cold weather. Where the pit is not over four feet wide, and the potatoes are in good dry condition, no ventilation may be needed if the first layer of straw is liberal and not too heavily covered with dirt at first. Ventilators poorly arranged are frequently causes of trouble. A board laid along the ridge of the last layer of dirt may help prevent washing down.

Alternate layers of straw and soil not only prevent freezing but hold the coolness in the spring. Covering with corn fodder in late winter will help hold this desirable temperature and keep the potatoes dormant, but this invites trouble from mice and rats.

Hoover Proclaims Armistice Day On Monday November 11

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Hoover, by public proclamation, today called upon the people of the nation to turn aside from their labors on Armistice Day and pay tribute to those who died in the World War.

"WHEREAS, the Eleventh of November, 1918, marked the cessation of the most destructive, sanguinary and far reaching war in human annals; and

"WHEREAS, it is fitting that the recurring anniversary of this day should be commemorated by exercises which shall recall the high purposes for which the nation entered the World War, the devotion and sacrifice of those who gave service to their country in its peril and the memory of those who died to bring peace, and which likewise shall recall the nation's obligation to those dead that we shall apply ourselves to measures which shall contribute to prevent repetition of such devastation of humanity; and

"WHEREAS, by concurrent of the Senate and the House of Representatives, 1926, the president was requested to issue a proclamation for the observance of Armistice Day

"NOW, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, president of the United States of America, in pursuance of the said concurrent resolution, do hereby order that the flag of the United States be displayed on all government buildings on November 11, 1929 and do invite the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches and other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies, giving expression to our gratitude for peace and the hope and desire that our friendly relations with other peoples may continue."

Sturgeon Follow Western Rivers

PASCO, Wash., Nov. 8.—Giant sturgeon from the Columbia river have invaded the depths of the Snake river and are being caught almost as far inland as Yellowstone National park. A quarter-century ago fishing for sturgeon was a big industry in the Columbia river region, but suddenly the big fish disappeared.

In the last five years, however, sturgeon have again become numerous and are rapidly increasing in size. Sturgeon weighing 400 pounds and more have been taken in nets this summer in deep water holes in the Snake river. Sturgeon fishing in the lower California river is excellent, and Pacific coast fish markets display steaks cut from the big fish regularly.

The enormous pouches of eggs taken from sturgeon at this season are utilized in two canneries equipped to make caviar.

Rich American Girl Midinette In Paris

(International News Service) PARIS, Nov. 8.—Somewhere in Paris is an American girl in the guise of a little French "midinette," delivering fine gowns from a big dress-making establishment to smart women with little more means than she has herself.

Presenting herself recently before the Directorate of one of the houses, she explained that the dream of her life had been to be taken for one of the little working girls and be followed by French flirts. She is working for her big thrill now.

Beware! gray-haired Boulevardiers, wearing a gay button hole and white spats. There is a little midinette abroad who passes for a Parisienne and who isn't one at all.

NEW YORK MAY PASS OLD AGE PENSION

(International News Service) ALBANY, Nov. 8.—Indications are that the 1930 State Legislature will provide for an old age pension system.

A special commission, created by the last legislature at the request of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, is now studying the subject.

Fight Peach Moths With Green Worms

(International News Service) NEW HAVEN, Nov. 8.—Fifteen hundred green worms, each contained in a strawberry leaf, were imported here by train from Moorestown, N. J., in the state's fight against the Oriental peach moth. The worms are known as "strawberry leaf rollers" and will be used, this winter, to develop parasites of the peach moth that will be set free in Connecticut orchards in April.

To handle the work of raising the parasites two thousand potted strawberry plants have been arranged in the state experiment station greenhouses here, and ice boxes and incubators were constructed. If the parasites develop too fast they will be put into ice boxes, after being developed in the incubators.

FURBELOWS ARE TABOO AT ADVENTIST COLLEGE

(International News Service) WALLA WALLA, Nov. 8.—Co-eds who enter the portals of the Walla Walla college, a Seventh Day Adventist institution, will be required to pursue their studies without the collegiate furbelows that flash on the average American campus.

Jewelry, sleeveless dresses and high heeled shoes are taboo.

"No education can be complete that does not teach right principles in regard to dress," the unsuitable clothing unfitted either for study or for recreation."

Booster Club To Aid Chest Drive

Cooperation Is Promised At Meeting Held In City Building Last Night

Renewed enthusiasm was shown at the meeting of the New Castle Booster Club in the city building last evening, when endorsement of the Community Chest was heartily given by the members of the organization. A team was formed from the Community Chest which will attend the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening, when a cleanup campaign for the chest fund will be projected.

During the course of the evening, a representative of a new industrial concern, which has already established itself here, was present and informed members of the club of its plans for the future. This new industry will eventually employ 150 men and has already started the task of getting its factory here in shape.

Informal discussion of a number of other projects which the Booster Club will work upon during the coming winter were discussed and plans were laid for a rousing meeting on November 21st, when a good speaker will be secured.

The membership campaign for the organization was discussed and plans for the future were outlined by the chairman of the committee.

Frank C. Andrews, chairman of the program committee will have

Rev. W. E. McClure Will Speak On The Creation

Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church the pastor, Rev. W. E. McClure will preach from the first verse in the Bible, "In the Beginning God created the heavens and the earth". This will be the first of a series of sermons from the book of Genesis. The first part of this message will deal with God's revelation of the original creation. The last part will show how the Lord makes sinners new creatures through the "second man" or the "last Adam".

In other words the gospel of God's grace will be preached from the first verse of Genesis—the first creation—the new creation.

At the morning service Dr. McClure's theme will be "God's Eternal Love" or "Love in Four Dimensions".

She's Our Betty

One guess as to who this pensive little miss is. Right! Betty Compson, of course.

Cleveland Youth Confesses Robbery

(International News Service)
SHARON, Pa., Nov. 8.—Victor Yessler, 23, Cleveland, on Thursday confessed that he took part in the robbery of the Columbia theatre here in October, 1928. He was arrested in Cleveland. Sadie Eaker, cashier at the theatre, identified Yessler as one of the two armed men who held her up and made away with the receipts of $1360.

Inspirational Sermon By Rev. M. Scripture

Urgent Call To Be Ready For We Know Not When The Son Of Man Cometh

Another service of inspiration and spiritual fervor was enjoyed last evening at the revival meetings being held in the Hoover Heights Tabernacle. The altar was filled with people seeking God's forgiveness, desiring to be ready for life or service here but especially ready for the return of Christ and their stand before Him in the day of judgment.

The Gospel Messengers again pleaded. Especially effective was interpretation of the song "Throw A Line" as sung by Mr. Case. The old familiar hymns played moved hearts and stirred pleasant memories. The vocal selection carry a great appeal for spiritual advancement.

The sermon by Rev. M. J. Scripture on "Ready Now" was a strong appeal to immediate forsaking of sin, an urgent call to clean living each day, the urge of the necessity of Christian minute men. His text was taken from Matthew 24:44, "Be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the son of man cometh." This, the preacher declared, was not a call that men get ready, but that they be ready. This demands that there be more than a desire, a knowledge or profession, or even apparent conformity to outward forms and rules. It is such forsaking of sin that the life is made clean thru the new life given by receiving Christ. The reason for this was made clear as well as the method of preparation, which the speaker said was only possible as we came to Christ.

This evening Mr. Slack will give his testimony, how God brought him into the joy of Christian experience. There will also be the regular musical program. Sunday will be the closing services with The Gospel Messengers.

Driver Is Held For Manslaughter

CHARLOTTE, Pa., Nov. 8.—County Coroner William B. Baker today conducted an inquest into the death of Joseph Dragone, 9, of New Eagle, who was killed November 1, when he was run down by a Ward Baking company truck, operated by William Gamboni, 32, of Pittsburgh.

Gamboni was held by the coroner's jury to await grand jury action on a charge of manslaughter.

He is also charged with driving under the influence of liquor and failure to stop and render assistance.

SLIPPERY ROCK

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Bingham of Bridgeville attended parents' day at the college and remainder over Sunday with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce McCullough of Warren, Pa., spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McCullough.

Some of the Pythian Sisters met at the home of Mrs. Alice Heasley to make patches for a quilt to be sent to the K. of P. orphans home.

An interesting pageant was presented by the children and young people of the United Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning. This preceded the annual thank offering which will be given next Sabbath. Miss Grace Braham will be the speaker.

Mrs. Jack Caine of Ashtabula, O., spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Glaspy, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell and daughter of Crafton attended parents' day at the college and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Glaspy Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grubb and family and R. L. Grubb spent the week-end with relatives. Mrs. R. L. Grubb returned to Bradford with them for a few weeks' visit.

About 50 from the Slippery Rock grange motored to Windfield grange and put on the program which was in charge of Mr. McBurney. Appreciation was extended to the visitors for the good program they presented. Refreshments were served and all returned feeling they had spent an enjoyable evening.

Dr. Eisenberg is attending the educational congress this week at Harrisburg. This is a joint meeting of the department of public instruction, district superintendents and presidents of the state colleges.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Glaspy as leader. Mrs. Ben McCoy, Mrs. Edna Dight and Mrs. J. E. Grossman took part in the program. A vocal duet was given by Mrs. A. C. Scott and Mrs. Charles Bowers.

Misses Sara, Jean and Catherine Crawford spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crawford.

Mrs. C. P. West, who is still a patient in the Butler Memorial hospital, is reported to be slowly improving.

Mrs. J. D. Henderson of Chicago and Miss Rhoda Leslie of Winnipeg, Manitoba, were guests of Mrs. R. W. Bingham last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Patterson and family have moved to Wilkinsburg where Mr. Patterson has been employed for the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of New Castle spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Morrison.

Mrs. E. L. Grubb and mother, Mrs. Sarah Black, spent last week with the latter's son, H. M. Black of West Sunbury.

Miss Ella Davidson of Wilmerding was a week-end visitor in town.

Mrs. Orville Wrigley entertained a few of her friends at a quilting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. D. L. Adams, Mrs. J. E. Stoop and Mrs. S. H. McDonald were Butler shoppers Wednesday.

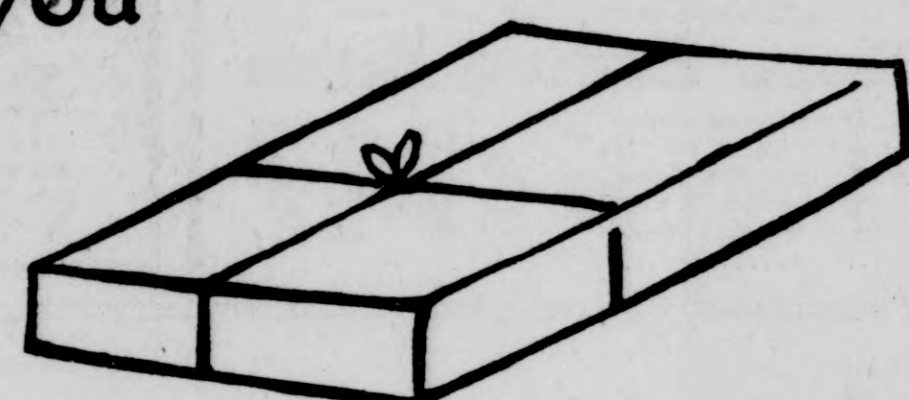

Miss Edna Hog is visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Hog.

Better Tasting Postage Stamps

Government Improves On Taste Of Postage Stamp "Stickum"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Better tasting postage stamps have been developed by the postoffice department.

The "stickum" on the back of postage stamps is still far from tasting like candy but the bitterness has been removed and the gum now is whole-some and edible.

Postal officials said that heretofore stamps were printed and gummed at the same time.

Now they are printed one day, the paper and ink allowed to dry thoroughly and then the gum is applied, an expert of the department said.

The "stickum" is made from the Cassava plant and could be eaten by a baby without harmful effect he added.

Batches of stamps with the new preparation have been sent to Chicago, New York, San Francisco and other cities as test consignments. Meantime the Bureau of Standards is experimenting with other gum preparations to see if even a better tasting stamp can be found.

"Look it up for yourself and you'll remember it longer" is dad's confession that he doesn't know a word's definition.

Powell Leads City Session

Temporary Chairman At Meeting Of Ellwood
Council Thursday

BUSINESS MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 8.—Due to the absence of the president, Judd Turner, J. E. Powell was named by the councilmen to occupy the chair at the meeting in the city building Thursday evening.

Following the presentation of reports from the finance and other committees, the communication from Robert Johnson was read, and approved. Mr. Johnson asked that he might be allowed to move a house from Park avenue to Crescent avenue and asked that the city furnish a protective bond of $500 as an insurance against accident.

A request signed by a number of Ellwood citizens and presented to the city clerk by D. C. Hancher, asked that traffic lights be placed at the Sixth street and Lawrence intersection. After a brief discussion it was decided that the police committee and the borough manager be given the authority to install the light.

Following the treasurer's report six fires were reported by Chief Plante. Lawrence avenue, $50.00.

Elport, $500.00.
Commercial avenue, $500.00.
Elport, $500.00.

Todd avenue, $500.00.
Todd avenue, $500.00.

The police report presented by Burgess D. A. Evans included:

Arrests, 23.
Discharged, 5.
Fined, 2.

Forfeited, 16.
Fines and forfeits, $175.00.

Louis Young, health commissioner's report stated that the following diseases had been reported in the month of October:

Chickenpox, 10.
Diphtheria, 2.
Scarlet fever, 2.

One tubercular case.

It was agreed by the councilmen that the remaining sum be paid for the steam shovel which has been used to do the improving work in this section, in order that it become the property of the city.

Clyde Houk, councilman stated that he was put to a disadvantage on account of there not being a "slow" or "stop" sign on Line avenue, east of North. The matter of placing either one or the other at this section was referred to the police committee and borough manager, with power to act.

As a result of a complaint received by the councilmen, "Scotty" Coates suggested that an ordinance be drawn up that a curb line be established on the north side of Wampum avenue, between North street and Todd avenue.

A question of Lombardo Corosi's property on Hillside being diminished in value was brought up by Attorney White of New Castle. It was decided by the councilmen, after explaining to Attorney White that his client would not be assessed, that the borough solicitor, Attorney J. W. Humphrey, the street commissioner and borough manager should come to terms with Attorney White.

Consideration was also given at the meeting of the measure providing for a change in the method of paying for street paving. The new method was favored.

Armistice Night At Rotary Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 8.—"Where do We Go From Here Boys," "Over There," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary" and many more songs sung so enthusiastically were brought out, dusted off and lustily sung by the Ellwood Rotarians at their Armistice meeting last night in the first Presbyterian church.

After one of these songs, when all were feeling in the proper mood for celebrating, Bart Richards of New Castle, speaker of the evening, made a fitting and convincing address.

Plans were made at a short business session to have Ladies' night at their meeting November 21.

Visiting Rotarians were T. C. Campbell and W. T. Reader of Beaver Falls; O. W. Zeigler of Zellenople.

Boy Scout News

LIONS TROOP NO. 13
The Lions Boy Scout troop No. 13 held its weekly meeting in the Union high auditorium Thursday. The meeting was in charge of Scoutmaster Peter Grittle.

The opening exercises were conducted by Tom Grittle, followed by a volley ball game between Ed Sontum's team and Charles Clark's team. Ed Sontum's team was victorious.

Two new scouts, Paul Morrison and William Morgan, were admitted to the troop. John McClelland successfully passed the tenderfoot requirements and DeWayne Allen passed requirement No. 2 of his tenderfoot work.

Signalling was again taken up at this meeting. Tom Grittle instructed the scouts on the semaphore code and Francis Davis the wig wag.

After Pete Karher led the troop in singing a few popular songs, Assistant Scoutmaster Jack Grittle led the troop in tumbling exercises.

The next meeting will be a rope contest between the scouts. Scoutmaster Grittle requests that each member bring a rope for this event.

After the closing exercises, led by John McClelland, Scoutmaster Grittle dismissed the troop.

Scribe, Rocco Monico.

Librarians In Session Here

Four-County District Conference In Ellwood On Thursday

LIBRARY DECORATED IN FESTIVE STYLE

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Nov. 8.—To those borrowers going to the Ellwood public library, the large rooms still retained that "party" air with which it had been prepared for the four-county district meeting of librarians, which convened there yesterday.

Great baskets of flame and gold chrysanthemums occupied places of importance on the reading tables and desks. On one of the low book-cases, separating the junior division from the senior, a Dennison paper display, "The Pilgrim Colony", attracted the eye.

The Pilgrim women going to church, the men in their own groups, hunters, Indian warriors. A glimpse of the blue sea on which sailed the Mayflower, Plymouth Rock, log cabins, the chapel, wigwags partially hidden by pine trees showing splashes of green where the branches had been unburdened with their blanket of snow, the same white substance which completely covered the ground. This scene is in keeping with the Thanksgiving season and will be on display for the children for some time.

Another attractive feature remaining from the meeting was the colorful selection of books for tiny tots and juniors. The new delightfully illustrated Alice in Wonderland apparently pleased the elders. They were not to be resisted—those cunning books.

The modernistic frontispiece in "Italian Fairy Tales" was also attracting attention. "The Good Fairy Tales—Irish Ones" sounds the blarney note just loud enough to call its attention to anyone answering to the name of O'Brian, O'Hara or what have you.

This display of children's books, along with other interesting ones arranged on the top-most shelf in the children's department, are simply to give out information as to books for the kiddies and the price of same.

Mrs. Catherine Charles, Ellwood librarian, was the charming hostess to 45 librarians from Lawrence, Beaver, Mercer and Butler counties, who were her guests.

The program:
The meeting opened at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Sarah D. Caldwell of Ambridge in charge.

Address of welcome—Miss Susan Himmilwright, Aliquippa, member of the executive committee.

J. Jay Dunn, president of the board of trustees of the local organization, "Library Work From a Trustee's Standpoint."

Miss Katherine Rock, Greenville, "Perplexities From a Librarian's Point of View."

Miss Alice M. Sterling, New Castle librarian, presented "Echoes from the 29th annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Library association."

Following luncheon in the M. E. church at 1 o'clock there was a discussion of new books.

Miss Eleanor Beach, Butler librarian, had for her topic, "Fiction."

Fiction notes from the state meeting were discussed by Miss Sterling. Travel was the topic upon which Miss Eleanor Carver of Sharon talked.

CHEWTON

LOYAL MEN'S CLASS MEETING

The regular monthly business meeting of the Loyal Men's Bible class of the Chewton Christian church was held in the church parlor Tuesday evening with a good attendance. Special guests of the evening were Samuel Burrows and Robert Marshall of Ellwood City and Robert Burrows of Flint, Mich. The Burrows brothers sang several selections. After routine business the annual election of class officers took place with the following men named:

President—Charles Guy.
Vice president—Joseph Kelly.
Secretary—Clair Houk.
Treasurer—Samuel Kelly.

These officers were installed into office by the minister of the church, Charles P. Durbin. A delightful luncheon was served by the social committee, after which the new president appointed committee chairman for the coming year.

Lookout—W. P. Guy, Jr., chairman; Charles Durbin, Samuel Kelly, Social—Charles Yoho, chairman; Peter Tillia, Frank Baker.

Welfare—Clair Houk, chairman; Loyal Martin, Clyde Chappell.

Plans were also made for the annual fish fry and bazaar to be held in the basement of the church Friday night, December 6, 1929.

PRAYER MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Twenty-one were present at the mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Some very interesting subjects are being discussed each week. It is hoped that the attendance will increase each week and a cordial invitation is extended to any who wish to attend. Rev. C. P. Durbin, leader.

School Teacher Writes In School Journal Of New Castle's Facilities

In the current issue of The Pennsylvania School Journal, the organ of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association, Miss Frances McClaren, head of the English department of the Senior high school, has an interesting article entitled "New Castle, the Convention City".

The article deals in an interesting fashion with the facilities of New Castle as the place to handle the convention of the P. S. E. A., which starts here December 26th. The article follows:

NEW CASTLE, THE CONVENTION CITY

New Castle, the convention city for 1929, is centrally located in western Pennsylvania near the Ohio boundary. Built upon a grant of land given to Major Robert Stewart of New Castle, Delaware, for service in the Revolution, it was settled later by his son, John Carlyle Stewart. It is an industrial town which has grown up in the midst of an agricultural community. It is the county seat of Lawrence county and at the present time has a population of 55,000; within a radius of 30 miles from the city there is a population of 250,000. The growth of New Castle has been slow but permanent. The city celebrated its centennial in 1925 and boasts of being one of the oldest towns in this section of the state.

As in all pioneer towns transportation in those early days was difficult. The opening of the canal from Erie to Pittsburgh, via New Castle, was one of the most important events in the history of Lawrence county. It was the principal means of developing the wonderfully rich territory between New Castle and Erie; for until navigation was opened mineral resources of the county were of little value on account of the slow and costly means of transportation.

Times have changed. Convention visitors will find New Castle advantageously located. While easily accessible by all means of transportation, it is connected with all parts of the state by three leading railroads: The Pennsylvania, The Pittsburgh and Lake Erie, and The Baltimore and Ohio. Improved roads, interurban lines, bus lines and nearby airports make possible any method of travel desired. There are eight improved roads leading into the city from as many different directions. One additional road is under contract. The Benjamin Franklin coast-to-coast highway goes through the city. The Perry highway, over which Commander Perry's supplies were transported before the battle of Lake Erie, passes through the county 10 miles east of the city.

While Dame Nature has not been prodigal with her spectacular scenery in the region of New Castle, it has some spots that are unsurpassed for beauty of landscape. Travel any road you wish and there is enough variety of levels to make the scenery enchanting; the hills rise gradually to various elevations of from 60 to 300 feet, being disposed in a system of terraces or plateaus, which form enchanting sites for residences, and give every variety of view. The streams of the Slippery Rock and Connoquessing Creeks flow through deep and narrow gorges walled by perpendicular masses of sandstone, over whose loose fragments and boulders they tumble and foam in wildest confusion. The McConnell's Mills district along the Slippery Rock Creek, which is at present a debatable point between the practical commercial world and those who would preserve some of nature's masterpieces for inspiration and study, is considered one of the rare scenic spots in the whole world.

New Castle has a vital interest for students of biology and geology. It is situated on the border of the glacial boundary line. Consequently, just a few miles south of the city we observe an unglaciated terrain; while an equal distance in the opposite direction we find typical glaciated country. Glacial formations are found even within the city limits.

Still farther afield we find additional and more marked characteristics typical of glaciated territory; such as lakes, ponds, numerous bogs, and even extensive swamps. Pymatuning Swamp, located in the trough of the Shenango Valley, is worthy of mention. The fauna and flora of this region are of especial interest to the biologist. The various scientific departments of the University of Pittsburgh make frequent excursions into the swamp for the purpose of study. Certain plants and small animal life are indigenous to Pymatuning and are found nowhere else on the continent.

New Castle is the largest tin plate center in the world. Other centers of industry are the Shenango Pottery, the Johnson Bronze and the Blair Strip Steel. The Shenango Pottery is noted all over the world for its production of vitrified china. It furnishes a high percentage of the china for the United States army and navy.

For Women of Middle Age

"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up and for the Change of Life and I can't get along without it. I lost about twenty pounds and I felt weak and run-down. I find it gives me strength and quiets my nerves. I have two daughters and I gave it to them when they came into womanhood and was greatly pleased at the results. I will answer any letter asking for information."—Mrs. L. E. Hanson, Waterloo, Iowa.

hotel dining rooms, restaurants, pullman diners and steamships. Special china made at the Shenango Pottery is being used by Commander Byrd in his expedition to the South Pole, and when the passengers on the Leviathan dine they use the New Castle product. Automobile accessories from the Johnson Bronze and the Blair Strip Steel are furnished in large quantities to the General Motors and other large companies. Thus, as an industrial center New Castle radiates its influence to all parts of the world.

The social and cultural needs of the city are met by the kindred organizations found in every progressive city, such as the Rotary Club, the Kiwanis, Lions, Business and Professional Women's Club, Quota, Federation of Women's Clubs, and others. Projects for the aesthetic development of the community are sponsored by such organizations as the Civic Music Association and the Garden Club. In addition to the various school libraries, New Castle supports a city library, which is constantly growing and adding new branches in various parts of the city. The spiritual welfare of the population is cared for by 77 churches of varying denominations and faiths. Recreational facilities are plentiful in the region of New Castle. Two of the leading ones are Cascade Park and the New Castle Field Club.

There are two modern and well equipped hospitals within the city. One, the Jameson Memorial hospital, just opened to the public the first of September, contains the very latest improvements and equipments known in hospital realms. This hospital was made possible by the philanthropy of the late David Jameson.

The educational system of New Castle is based upon the six-three-three plan. All of the elementary schools are organized on the platoon or the work-study-play plan. New Castle was the fourth city in the United States to adopt this plan. Trade school work is conducted in accordance with the Smith-Hughes act. A continuation school and evening classes for Americanization work are carried on. There are 11,000 students and 400 teachers in the city system. Within the last six years the Board of Education has conducted a $2,000,000 building program. Two modern junior high schools and two grade buildings have been erected. There has been an addition costing about $250,000 built to the senior high school, and many improvements have been made in the old elementary buildings. The latest addition to the program is the George Washington Junior High School. It is conceded by authorities to be the most improved type of junior high school architecture. The conference of the school journalists will meet in this building.

New Castle is ideally situated in respect to higher institutions of learning. Within a radius of 20 miles there are several colleges: Westminster, Geneva, Grove City, and the State Teachers College of Slippery Rock. Some distance north of the city are located Thiel College at Greenville and Allegheny College at Meadville; southeast it is only 50 miles to Pittsburgh with its universities; The Carnegie Institute of Technology, The University of Pittsburgh, Duquesne University, and Pennsylvania College for Women.

When the convention delegates arrive in New Castle they will find unusually spacious accommodations. The Scottish Rite Cathedral, which will be headquarters for the convention, is a magnificent structure erected at a cost of $2,000,000. It contains an auditorium seating 3,300 people, bowling alleys, roof garden, ball room and three large dining rooms capable of seating 3,600 guests. No city in the United States has a building better equipped to take care of a large convention. The Castleton Hotel, two blocks from convention headquarters, is also a new building with modern metropolitan appointments.

On account of its exceptional facilities for accommodations, New Castle has become a favorite convention city of western Pennsylvania. It is the desire of every one connected with the entertainment of the coming convention that to the endorsement of former delegates will be added the enthusiastic approval of the delegates of the P. S. E. A. on the choice of New Castle as the convention city.

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

A rich man may have a difficult time squeezing through the needle's eye, but no matter how small the eyes of the modern mother, they are magnified for the rich young eligible, and he hasn't any more chance of not getting through than a camel has of drawing in his humps.

The first questions a modern mother asks are: "What does he do? How much has he? Who are his people?"

Meaning: "Is he a banker, is he rich and what will he inherit?"

Mothers prefer, of course, that the young men look important because there is always the matter of the wedding pictures in the papers. Especially if the daughter is a trifle elongated, the picture is marred if the wealthy bridegroom is socially correct and financially perfect, but physically diminished. But one can't have everything, and if he must be short, the modern mother prefers it to be in stature.

I met a woman a few days ago who, at 39, is married to her fourth husband. They were all rich and they all died according to Hoyle. She says she never was in love with her present husband, but she thought it would be better for her to be married.

And wouldn't you like to know where his wife was when he tripped over the altar?

Another Mama hasn't spoken to her son since he married, 10 years ago. He has a lovely wife and several children and she hasn't even glimpsed the children, yet they all live in the same city. She had picked a richer wife for him and he wouldn't take her. He also married out of the family religion. Mama's pride weighs 10 tons and her heart a fraction of a gram.

It makes me remember the old preacher in Chicago who gave up his church and started a settlement in one of the city's sore spots where the children needed him. His elderly wife helped him.

"I gave up my church," he told me, "because I don't believe that philanthropy should have a creed."

One day a child came to him and said: "Ma says I can't come here any more because you ain't mentioning no denomination."

Another said she couldn't come. A similar reason.

But the dear old soul sent the children home to explain to their mothers that God had made Jews, Gentiles and those of all other creeds, and if they went to Heaven they would all have to associate up there, so he didn't think it would be a bad idea if they got together here on earth.

Next day each child came back with the same glad answer:

"Ma says I can come."

Traveling Cheap On French Roads

(International News Service)
PARIS, Nov. 8.—French hobos do not find it convenient or profitable to "hop freights" in France, since third class rail fares in this country are computed on the basis of less than 12-5 cents per mile. Round trips are available at a flat rate of one cent per mile.

Fourth class being recently abolished in Germany, France can claim to have the lowest rail fares of any country in the world. Even if one elects to travel first class, the fare is slightly below 3 cents per mile.

Vienna Best Behaved Of Austrian Cities

Few Major Crimes Reported In Statistics Of Ministry Of Justice

(International News Service)

VIENNA, Nov. 8.—Vienna is the best behaving city in Austria according to the recent crime statistics published by the Austrian Ministry of Justice. Despite its international reputation for being an immoral metropolis the percentage of criminals sentenced to imprisonment in this city with almost two million inhabitants is considerably smaller than that of any other Austrian city and even of villages with less than two thousand inhabitants.

The average number of persons annually convicted by Austrian courts totals about 14,000 and the average period of imprisonments about 6,600. Capital punishment is abolished in Austria.

A comparison with New York state shows that while the latter has about twice the population of the Austrian republic the average number of convictions during the last five years is almost six times as much in the rich "Empire state" as it is in the poorer Austria.

The school teachers of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., have gone on a strike, proving again that the children of this generation have it easier than we did.—The Dayton Daily News.

Swansdown POWDERED SUGAR

"How light it is!"
"How wonderfully soft!"
... housewives say.

Pour a little Swansdown in the palm of your hand. Hold it in the light. How white it is! How light and wonderfully soft! That is why one housewife wrote us: "It is really more like powdered crystals of sunlight than like ordinary sugar."

That's why women everywhere are using Swansdown... to bake with... to mix icings.

100% PURE CANE SUGAR Contains no Corn Starch or other Adulteration

When you use Swansdown you will never have to boil or time an icing! Happily convenient... it mixes like magic with milk and flavor.

Your grocer has Swansdown.

The Story Of The World War 161—The Battle Of The Piave

DURING THE FIRST WEEK OF NOVEMBER, 1917, THE AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES OF GENERAL VON BUELOW, WHICH HAD BROKEN THROUGH THE ITALIAN LINE AT CAPORETTO (OCT. 24), MARCHED STEADILY WESTWARD THROUGH NORTHERN ITALY. THE ITALIANS FOUGHT DESPERATELY IN RETREAT, BUT COULD NOT STEM THE TIDE OF INVASION.

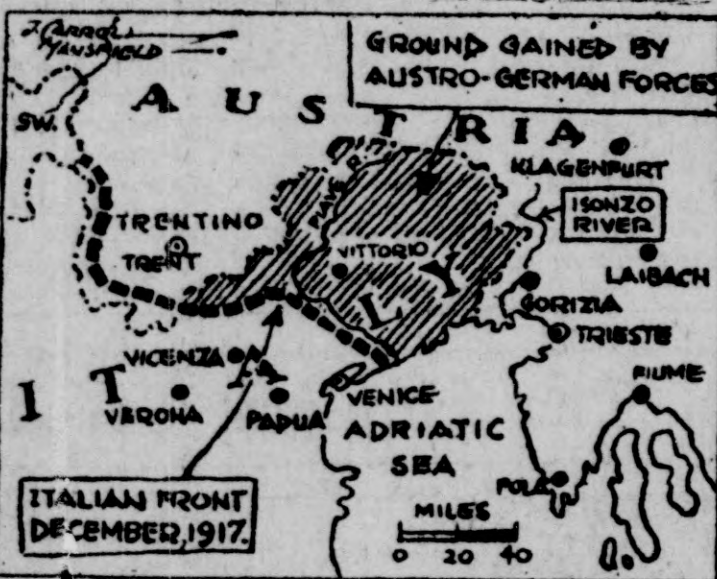

UN CAME THE GERMANS UNTIL VENICE WAS ALMOST WITHIN RANGE OF THEIR BIG GUNS. IN ANSWER TO FRANTIC APPEALS FROM THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT THE ALLIES RUSHED CONTINGENTS OF FRENCH AND BRITISH TROOPS ACROSS THE ALPS FROM THE WESTERN FRONT.

GENERAL ARMANDO DIAZ

BUT BEFORE THE SUPPORTS FROM FRANCE ARRIVED, ITALY HAD SAVED HERSELF. UNDER GENERAL DIAZ, WHO SUCCEEDED GENERAL CADORNA ON NOVEMBER 5, THE ITALIAN ARMY FACED ABOUT (NOV. 10) AND MADE A HEROIC STAND ALONG THE PIAVE. THE BATTLE OF THE PIAVE WAS ITALY'S "BATTLE OF THE MARNE."

THE AUSTRO-GERMAN ADVANCE WAS CHECKED, AND, WITH THE AID OF THE FRENCH AND BRITISH RE-ENFORCEMENTS, THE ITALIANS ESTABLISHED A STRONGLY INTRENCHED LINE ON THE PIAVE. TOMORROW—THE BATTLE OF CAMBRAL.

New Castle-South To Clash In Youngstown

Locals Favorites To Take Victory At South Stadium

New Castle High Gridders Will Oppose Ashbaugh Team Tomorrow

GAME TO START AT 2:15 O'CLOCK

By "BUGS" WALTHER

YOUNGSTOWN Ohio football fans will get a peek at the 1929 edition of the Phil Bridenbaugh grid machine tomorrow afternoon. The New Castle Bears are scheduled to oppose South High, at the South stadium. The game will start at 2:15 o'clock according to word from the Ohio City today.

The conquerors of Rayen High will be the cynosure of all eyes as they trot out of the dressing room at South High. The Rayen boys found New Castle "tough stuff" in the second game of the year at Franklin Field, falling 19 to 0. Rayen was the favorite when they opposed the red and black warriors here. Youngstowners were rather amazed at the clever attack of the Bridenbaugh crew.

Coach "Bugs" Ashbaugh is having a hard time this year in getting his South charges into the winning column. Four times they have gone to the field, and have been socked on the chin for the long sleep. South charges into the winning column. Four times they have gone to the field, and have been socked on the chin for the long sleep.

If perfection means anything then the New Castle boys will be up there when the game gets going. Coach Bridenbaugh has the New Castle team in top form. Three stars are out with injuries, and they may not start the Youngstown game. Three good reserve men are ready for the nod. So it goes with any good football team, you must have capable reserves and "Bridy" has them.

Three Players Out
Art Alexander, fullback, is ailing with a charley-horse, and may not start the game, and in case this is true, young "Red" Bender will more than likely get the call. Bender showed to good style in the few minutes he played in the recent Bellevue game after relieving Alexander. Cunningham has a bad leg and if the Harlansburg tackle cannot start, it is probable that G. McIntosh may get the call. Hart is suffering with a badly twisted hip, and is likely to be replaced by "Bob" Jamieson.

New Castle High will feature a clever aerial attack at Youngstown. The passing combination McAuley to Hannon, to Alexander, to Thomas is one of the best that New Castle has ever had. Mooney and DeMucio on the ends have also been catching them regularly.

Much of the glamor of the South-New Castle game this year has been taken away by the four recent setbacks handed the Youngstowners, but nevertheless the South team is liable as not to be "on" when they oppose New Castle. The locals have a 7 to 6 defeat at South two years ago to avenge. South wants retribution for that 32 to 7 defeat suffered on "Turkey Day" in 1928. The game promises to be hard fought.

South High will be out there trying to impress upon the faithful followers that they are not as bad as the season record indicates. New Castle will be after another victory over a Youngstown team.

The New Castle team will leave early Saturday morning for Youngstown, likely by bus.

The probable lineups:
New Castle South High
Mooney L.E. Franklin Deep L.T. Benko
Binder L.G. Runevic
McIntosh C.
Hart O.
Jamieson R.G. McBride
Cunningham O. Young
McMucio R.E. DeVeise
McAuley Q.B. Crawford
Hannon L.H. McFarland
Thomas R.H. Everth
Alexander O.
Bender F.E. Russell
Time of game 2:15 o'clock.

Memorial In Belfast For Captain Crispin

BELFAST, Nov. 3.—A memorial window and tablet honoring Captain William Crispin, an ancestor who died in 1645 while in command of one of Admiral Sir William Penn's warships, has been unveiled in the ancient church of Carrickfergus, near Belfast, by Jackson Crispin, of Berwick, Pa., and New York City.

Captain Crispin, who lies buried in Carrickfergus, was a great favorite of Admiral Penn, the founder of Pennsylvania, with whom he sailed in a secret expedition to the West Indies. Admiral Penn appointed Crispin chief justice of the then Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, where he was given large grants of land.

It is alleged that men are buying perfumes for personal use. Whither are we drifting.

Army Goes To Illinois For Game; "Breathers" For Most Of Good Elevens

By DAVID J. WALSH

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Having run itself ragged through a half season of very earnest endeavor, college football was to take pretty much of a "breather" tomorrow, except here and there where breathing, for this day at least, will be largely unobtainable. They won't do much breathing before tonight in the Southwest Conference, for example. Neither will Pitt and W. and J. nor Fordham and Boston College, four of the good ones on the East's unbeaten list. Nor will Minnesota until the Iowa game is over and maybe not then.

Those intersectional big-timers, coupling the Army with Illinois at Champaign, and Harvard with Michigan at Ann Arbor, also carry much authority in spite of the fact that the quartet involved no longer is unknown to defeat. However, any time you get major teams like these daily with each other the games aren't breathers. They are more likely to be stifiers.

Gophers vs. Iowa
So is the meeting between Utah and Colorado College for the Rocky Mountain title. Likewise Detroit's invasion of the East to play West Virginia after their respective ties with Marquette and Fordham. Ohio State and Northwestern aren't fixing to play any sorority game, either, particularly since the result still may have a bearing on the Big Ten championship. Northwestern ran one early, Illinois, out of it last week. It has a chance with the Buckeyes tomorrow. Minnesota meeting with Iowa may mean the difference between the title and comparative obscurity for the Gophers, but I fear that the result of the Chicago-Wisconsin game will mean very little to posterity.

However, it seems to be largely one of those days on which much in general but nothing in particular is due to happen. The Big Ten isn't playing really vital games; neither is the coast for the Big Six, nor the South. In fact, barring the few exceptions noted, you will have to go a long way to get even a little action tomorrow, most of it being concentrated in the state of Texas.

Texas vs. Baylor
Here the boys are in for a terrible Brannigan. Texas and Baylor, nominal leaders of the conference, will be embroiled in their annual event and on its result might very well depend the outcome of the Southwest race. Baylor has won its only conference game to date. Texas has won two and tied the odd game with Southern Methodist. The latter will go to bat for the second time in the race in its meeting with the Aggies and ought to file this one away for future need. The Aggies have blown two already and apparently aren't through yet. Texas Christian, the other unbeaten entry, has won one conference game and five others and will see what it can do about Rice, which started once in the conference and lost once. A very fine time should be had by all.

The coast, as said, isn't doing much. California, the heir-apparent, is out of action. Stanford is playing Washington and should walk in. Southern California has drawn an apparent push-over in Nevada and the Washington State-Idaho affair will mean very little, even when it is over.

Frosh Tackle Makes Good On Titan Eleven

REHFUß - TACKLE

When Coaches Beede and Lawther of the Westminster College grid team realized early this fall that Captain Joe Furno's shoes had to be filled on the Titan line, they almost despaired.

Then along came Glenn Rehfuß, Sandusky, O., freshman who made the line position with his stellar play. Rehfuß was injured in the Thiel game two weeks ago, but will be ready to go against the Dukes. Meanwhile Armour, Dishong, and Hadden, all reserve tackles, have developed until they will also see action in order to cope with Layden's four-team attack.

Zuppke Worries About Army Game

Illinois Team Not In Best Of Condition For Game With Army Saturday

(International News Service) CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 8.—A picture of Coach Bob Zuppke mourning in the midst of a band of illi criples. That is the text of the report that went forth from the Illinois stronghold today to a squad of Army football players trekking westward for tomorrow's intersectional battle.

Illinois' veteran coach expressed his deepest sorrows over the way his squad has been battered and buckled about in its games thus far. The reason, he said, is that every team the Illini have run up against this season has been keyed up to receive his boys in a rousing manner.

Zuppke points mournfully to the fact that the Army last week had a comparatively easy game with South Dakota, while the Illini ran head-on into a bruising defeat at Northwestern.

Class Games At Washington Hi

The 9-B3 team handed the 9-B4 team a 9 to 6 upset yesterday in the Interclass league games played at the George Washington Junior High gym floor. The 9-B5 team walloped the 9-B6 team 27 to 2 in a lopsided encounter.

Titan Harriers Travel To West Virginia For Meet

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—A squad of six runners, a student manager and Coach R. X. Graham left here at noon today for Morgantown, W. Va., where the University of West Virginia cross-country team will be met tomorrow in a five and one-half mile race as a feature of the Detroit-West Virginia grid game.

The harriers selected to make the trip are: Captain Robert Wallace, Coraopolis; James Smalley, Elizabeth; Lorenz Stocker, Pittsburgh; Andrew Perrine, Jackson Centre; David Maxwell, New Wilmington; and Elmer Myers, Sharon. Student Manager Henry Wettich, New Castle, accompanied the runners.

The Westminster team will leave Pittsburgh on an afternoon train, arriving in Morgantown this evening. The meet is scheduled to finish between the halves of the Detroit game in the Mountaineer stadium. The team is expected to return late Saturday evening.

Sharkey May Fight In Chicago Stadium

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Negotiations were under way here today for a bout some time in February featuring Jack Sharkey, Boston heavyweight contender, according to Nate Lewis, matchmaker of the Chicago stadium. Sharkey is reported to have asked a guarantee of $75,000 for the engagement.

COSTLY APPROVAL

He had gone into the library to put the thing up to her father, and she was anxiously waiting on the front porch. "Well," said the suitor when he returned, "he asked me how I was fixed and I told him I had $3,000 in the bank."

"And what did he say to that?" "He borrowed it."

Girls' Teams Call At High November 25

Basketball Call For Senior High School Girls Only Three Weeks Off

MISS SARA MCGOWN NEW FLOOR COACH

On Monday afternoon, November 25 at the senior high school, Miss Sara McGown, new girls' physical director will issue her first call for candidates for the girls New Castle High school 1929-30 basketball team.

Preliminary practices among the girls have started and it looks like a record breaking number of girls will answer the new coach's call for basketball material three weeks from now. The Senior High school will have a hard schedule this year.

Several of the girls on last year's team will help to solve Coach McGown's problem. But there are still several positions open and it looks like there will be lots of competition among the girls for this year's quintet.

Miss Sara McGown is the new physical director at the high school. She succeeded Miss Ruth Boyd.

Racing Expert Is Called By Death

(International News Service) DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 8.—J. L. Dempsey, 60, of New Orleans, widely known horse racing expert, died in his room at a local hotel Thursday after suffering a heart attack.

Dempsey had been ill since his arrival here several days ago for the inaugural racing season at Arlington Downs. He had continued his work in spite of his illness, however.

Peters And Tobias Matched For Bowl

Flashy Flyweights Will Settle Question of Supremacy November 18

ROCCO TO BOX
KIRBY TONIGHT

By ED FRITZ.

Ernie Peters, Chicago Indian and Phil Tobias, New York Hebrew, flyweights, who fought a sensational 10 round battle here several months ago have been re-matched for a clash at Jolly bowl Nov. 18. Last Monday night Peters actually defeated Rudy Bradley, Toronto, in Madison Square Garden, but the decision went to Tobias while 7,000 fans howled themselves hoarse. Tobias is the chap who eastern critics said should have been selected for one of the Garden bouts.

According to newspaper accounts of the Peters-Bradley bout Peters staggered Bradley around the ring in the last two rounds but could not drop him. As soon as the decision was turned against Peters, his manager, Sam Plan, telegraphed here saying: "Peters is willing to fight any flyweight, anytime."

BOUT IS CLINCHED.

Bob Levy, former manager of Battling Siki, now dead, and mentor for Tobias was asked if he cared to put Tobias in the ring with Peters who claims he was not in condition when they boxed here last summer. Levy accepted the bout and New Castle will get a Madison Square Garden attraction November 18.

Efforts to communicate with Willie Davies' manager, Jim Buchanan so that Davies could be signed for a bout against another topnotcher or the winner of the Tobias-Peters match failed. Buchanan received the message to call New Castle but failed to give the courtesy of a reply despite his good treatment here.

Romeo Pacelli, this city, and Joey Kattish, Pittsburgh who look very good to Harry Keck, the Pittsburgh boxing critic will meet in the semi-final.

ROCCO GOES TONIGHT.

Emmett Rocco, the Tarzan of the Connoquenessing will go to the wars again tonight with Tom Kirby, Boston, as his opponent in a 10-round bout in Public hall, Cleveland. Kirby is said to be a fifty boxer.

It was in Cleveland that Rocco made his chief bid for fame when he outboxed Johnny Risko in a ten round bout. He later dropped a decision to Risko. A defeat was also chalked up against him by Otto Von Porat.

Emmett's hand had considerable to do with both fights but it is all right now according to Joe Cumo who has been doing Rocco's business while confined to his bed. He has also matched him for a bout with Arthur Flynn at Boston November 22.

WANTS WORLD FENCE.

It doesn't look as though Harry Fuller, Niagara Falls, will get another chance to appear in this section as his manager Al Fleurant, a grasping, garrulous manager wants the world and a fence around it to permit Harry to box Johnny Burns. An offer was made to Fleurant. His terms were out of all reason.

ANSLEM AT FRANKLIN.

Marty Gold, Philadelphia, and Frankie Anslem, flyweight champion of Spain, have been matched for the 10 round final at Franklin, Pa., November 13. Anslem has fought Midget Wolgast, Johnny Erickson and is actually one of the best newcomers in the flyweight ranks. He can fight and Gold may be returned the loser.

Anslem was selected when Frisco Grande injured a hand while training for the bout but the Franklin club didn't lose anything when Anslem was substituted. In fact it looks like a better match. Tom McCafferty, Warren Farrow and Elmo the Mighty, three local boys, appear on the Franklin card.

HUNTING FOR FOE.

Spike Eberle, matchmaker of the club at New Brighton, was here trying to find who would go good with Dick Ramies, the welterweight. We mentioned several who would give Mr. Ramies a tussle, especially Jack Kane of Milwaukee who is anxious to appear in this section. Jimmy Rossi also would give him a battle.

Rossi comes from Philadelphia and has a great punch. He has flattened 21 opponents during his career and should Ramies be matched it would be a good bout. As this club like the one at Franklin are somewhat lesser known it is difficult for these clubs to secure the kind of talent they would like.

FRANKIE SCHOELL READY.

Chuck Johnson, veteran trainer of Buffalo this morning fired a telegram here declaring that Frankie Schoell would be back in the harness soon and would like a crack at Johnny Burns here. Hugh Shannon a few days ago said that Schoell is rounding into shape but don't know when he will start boxing.

When Henry Pimp allowed Burns to come in overweight Tom Walsh his manager agreed to have Burns come here again at the proper poundage but so far has not said anything. Walsh will keep his word if he finds that his good fighter can make the weight but if he can't he won't sign him at 160.

Joe Donnelly the sport goods salesman who refereed the Tommy Jones-Battling Terry fight a decade ago was here a few nights ago and recited the scenes that transpired while an audience listened. That was a fight all the way. It was staged in the Humbert hall when crowds were small as fleas.

GIRL SCOUTS

Will Follow Trail

If the weather is fine the Minnehaha troop of Girl Scouts will follow a trail tomorrow morning. Bonnie Christman, with Dorothy Cain and Becky Carson, will lead the way, starting from the City building at 9:30 sharp. The rest of the troop will follow, starting at 10 sharp. Those coming late will be out of luck. If the weather is not good the regular meeting will be held.

Change Meeting Place

Troop 7 of the First Baptist church will not meet in the church this Friday evening. They will meet at the home of Miss Florence Davis, 220 Sheridan avenue, at 7:30.

Senior Troop

At a meeting of the Senior Scout troop Wednesday afternoon it was decided to meet every other Friday afternoon after school. The meetings will take place in the Scout office. Only girls 16 years old and second-class Scouts are eligible for this troop.

Some very interesting plans have been made for this winter. One of the large projects of the troop will be community service. The next meeting will be Friday, Sept. 15.

'Old Dobbin' Is Coming Back To Farms In State

Prices For Young Horses Of Size And Quality Are High, According To County Farm Agent

"Dobbin" is returning to Pennsylvania farms. More mares are being bred and colts are again to be seen on many farms. The horse cycle seems to be on the up turn for prices for young horses of size and quality are high and the demand is from all sections, County Agent McCulloch reports.

Considerable interest and friendly rivalry have developed as a result of the formation of Keystone Gold Medal Colt clubs. These clubs were first started in five counties in the fall of 1928. There are now 12 clubs in existence. Lawrence county having one of them. Two counties have two clubs each.

In this project the club members develop and grow out the colts to make required gains within one year. The foals are usually shown at the county fair or at a special horse day event when they are weighed. One year later weights are taken and the colts shown in competition with medals awarded on the basis of gain in weight and show record. Colts which gain 600 pounds or more in the year are awarded gold medals provided they place above lighter animals in the show ring. Otherwise they get silver medals which also are awarded to colts gaining less than 600 pounds and more than 500 pounds if they place above the 400-pound animals. Bronze medals are awarded to colts gaining 400 to 499 pounds and to the 500-pound animals which place below the lighter weight colts in competition.

Round-ups held this fall have been well-attended and have brought out interesting features. Many of the colts have weighed 1,100 to 1,500 pounds as yearlings while others have weighed only 800 to 1,000 pounds. It has been convincingly demonstrated that feed and care make a great difference. Colts at future round-ups are expected to show great improvement as a result of lessons learned this year. H. R. McCulloch states.

A Football Philosopher

Zuppke of Illinois—coach, art critic, and practical philosopher—would probably forfeit a "Big Ten" championship (if that were necessary) to have his Orange and Blue team beat West Point at football next Saturday. Every seat for this Army game in the big Urbana stadium of the Illini was sold soon after the season started, for it was clearly forecast then that Zuppke had the making of another great eleven and that Chris Cagle & Co. would probably be at their scoring apex on or about Nov. 9.

Incidentally, Illinois—alma mater of "Red" Grange—is particularly anxious to stop that Cagle wonder now that he is being widely acclaimed as "better than Grange ever was." The Illini plan to puncture that reputation. And plaster the plunging Murrell as well.

Zuppke has seventeen veterans from last year's varsity with at least a dozen new stars discovered during October. Take his center trio, for instance, with Capt. Russ Crane and Larry Wietz, guards; and Eddie Kaval as pivot. Then the Illini have such superb line talent as Lou Gordon, O. R. Hills, Dale Roush and a dozen other fast-charging huskies. The problem of ends has bothered Zuppke for at least two seasons, and the Army game will sow whether "Bob" has solved this difficulty. In Frank Lanum, "Frosty" Peters, Pete Yanuskus, Jud Timm, Frank Walker, Doug Mills and several others, Illinois seems to have another backfield full of Zuppke zip.

Unless that Army line improves greatly over early season form, the Illinois forwards should "play the seams" in such fashion that it will be hard indeed for Cagle & Co. to get started on runs. "Playing the seams" is what the Illini linemen are taught to do on defense—that is, instead of banging into the opposite linemen, they are coached to dive or sift through the small space between opposing forwards so as to nail the back with the ball before he can even start his buck, sweep, or pass. Of course, the Army's coach, "Biff" Jones, is acquainted with Zuppke's "seam-hitting" line tactics. He is undoubtedly drilling the Cadets so Cagle & Co. will not find their rush-line serving as a sieve for swift-shifting and hard-tackling Illini. If that Army line fails, Cagle may be humiliated indeed in Grange's old haunts.

Zuppke's "flea flicker" attack and "mercury" defense" (which failed Penn's hidden ball stuff in the past) have featured many an Illinois victory since 1926. Saturday will tell if his "seam-sifting defense" can rush the Army to defeat and—explode the belief that Cagle is another (or better) "Red" Grange!

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A light signal drill today and New York University will have completed its work for the intercollegiate game here on Saturday with the University of Georgia.

The violet squad left the Yankee Stadium after two hours work yesterday in high spirits, for the scrubs, using Georgia formations were unable to gain through the varsity forward wall.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Penn is expecting Penn State to uncover a flock of passes in the battle between the schools here on Saturday. And judging by the way the Red and Blue varsity was breaking up the scrubs passing attack yesterday, they will be well prepared for anything State puts on the air.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—The eve of the thirtieth annual football contest between the University of Pittsburgh and Washington and Jefferson college finds both teams more or less on edge and both eager to be up and at them. Pitt is one up and when the Red and Black dash out on the field at the Stadium here tomorrow they will try to even things up once more. Pitt has won 14 and the Presidents 13 games of the series and the 1926 and 1927 contests were tied.

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 8.—With the knowledge that the outcome of the Allegheny game makes or breaks the season the Grove City college football team has willingly followed the week's hard schedule outlined by Coach Charley Berry for tomorrow's game here. It has been a bad season for the Methodists and the Crimson expect a vicious attack but are ready for it when the whistle blows for the homecoming game.

He Didn't Raise His Boy to Be a Son

Frank Buzzelli, who admits that he has raised his sixteen-year-old son since birth to be a daughter. Dressing him in skirts, and giving him dolls to play with before the family left their native Italy three years ago. Mr. Buzzelli says sons are frequently raised as daughters in Italy, and, in this case, the scheme seems to have been highly successful since Angelina has been able to take full charge of the household since his mother's death.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Industrial Stocks Soar Upward Today

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—With few exceptions the active industrial and railroad stocks in the first hour today continued the rally which was in progress at Thursday's close. Short covering was forced by the $656,000, 000 decrease in brokers loans, as reported by the Reserve board after the close, as well as by rumors of another forthcoming cut in the Reserve bank's rediscount rate.

Stock trading in the first half-hour totaled only 877,000 shares, against 2,000,000 and more in the same period yesterday and Monday, which went a long way to show that the "distress selling" of worriment margin accounts had been fairly well completed. Investment buying of the railroad stocks was reflected in the 4-point rallies of New Haven, to 110; Baltimore and Ohio, to above 120; Erie to 56; Chesapeake and Ohio to 190.

Wall Street breathed easier as the outlook for the immediate future of the stock market brightened up, with close to two billion dollars in bank and "other" funds squeezed out of the stock market since the first week in October. American Trade and Industry will not be short-rationed in credit supplies as it has been in the last year or two. Industrial earnings for the third quarter are running well ahead of the last two years and forecasts of a business slump are not taken very seriously in Wall Street.

Buying demand slumped off in the second hour, and the rally did not carry far. Active stocks like U. S. Steel, General Electric, American Can, Radio and Johns Manville moved around unsteadily, from one to three points above and below Thursday's closing prices. Professionals on both sides of the market were not anxious to load up on a day in advance of another Saturday closing which accounted for the comparative quietness of the speculative list as a whole.

Nash and Mack Trucks led a moderate rally in the motor shares, the balance of the list moving up a point or two. Around 52 Nash was showing a gain of 7 points above yesterday's lowest price, while Mack sold 5 points higher. Near the noon hour high-priced industrial stocks were under profit-taking and slipped off a few points.

Call money was unchanged at 6 per cent.

Electric Utilities Will Be Surveyed

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A complete survey of the interstate business of electric utilities in the country was directed by the Senate today when it adopted a resolution of Senator Couzens (R) of Michigan.

The federal trade commission would be required to make a report of the amount of electricity, both for power and light, transmitted from one state to another.

The information is expected to be used in consideration of Couzens' proposal for a new federal commission dealing with interstate communication.
